Sunday by Sunday

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

“DO NOT BE SAD, AND DO NOT WEEP”

“Do not be sad,” Nehemiah said, “and do not weep” (9:9). Our days are holy when they are lived in the presence of God. So why do we weep? Not because God is not present to us. That’s impossible. We weep because we are not present to God. We lose ourselves in our fears and our wishes that things would be different than they are.

The people of Nazareth sat down to listen. Jesus sat with them, and opened up the book of Isaiah. And what passage did he turn to? A message of consolation, the promise of “glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . recovery of sight to the blind” and freedom for the oppressed. Then when all eyes were fixed on him, he declared, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing” (Luke 4:18, 21).

When is that “today”? Is it yet to come? If so, then Jesus was mistaken. Is it already past? If so, then it is not today. “Today” is now, always now.

WE PLAY OUR PART . . . TODAY

Paul tells us that we are “Christ’s body.” He explains that in the church there are apostles, prophets, and teachers, as well as gifts of mighty deeds, “healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues” (1 Corinthians 12:28). In other words, a lot of different gifts, a lot of different jobs.

In God’s work—work like setting captives free and giving sight to the blind—we have our part to play. Our part is not to fall down on our faces and weep because we haven’t done more. Our part is to recognize and acknowledge what we have done, see what else we might do, and then walk out into today and do it.

God has made this year a “year acceptable to the Lord” and this day a “holy day.” God is present to us and we need to be present to God and to God’s world. We each have our part to play, our contribution to make. Each of us can make God’s world more peaceful, more joyful, healthier, and freer. This year! Today!

Today’s Readings:

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 - Ezra reads the law

1 Corinthians 12:12-30 - Analogy of the body

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21 - Beginning of Jesus’ preaching

Question for Adults - What do you believe that the anointing you received at baptism requires you to do?

Question for Kids - What could you do this week for someone who has less than you?

Prayer of the Week

Prayer for a Death in the Family

Merciful God,

Be with us as we mourn the death of _____.

Such a loss is not easy to bear
and I pray for comfort and consolation.
May the promise of life with you give us reason to hope,
and provide a pathway through our sorrow.

I ask you this in the name of Jesus,
whose own death brought life.

Amen.

Stewardship of Treasure

Offertory totals for Jan. 20 will be published in next weekend’s bulletin.

The budget is based on a weekly average offertory of $16,257.37 per week.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

What is Ordinary Time?

Besides Advent and Christmas, Lent and Easter, the Church calendar also includes what is known as ordinary time. Ordinary doesn’t mean unimportant, dull, or bland. The name “ordinary” in this comes from the word “ordinal” as in ordinal numbers—“first”, “second”, “third” etc. Each Sunday of Ordinary time is therefore numbered in order.

Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ and is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ.

2018 Contribution Tax Letter

Souper Bowl of Caring February 2 & 3

tacklehunger.org

Next weekend our High School Youth will participate in the Souper Bowl of Caring. Held annually on Super Bowl weekend, the Souper Bowl of Caring mobilizes young people to fight hunger and poverty in their local communities. Its vision is to transform Super Bowl weekend into America's largest youth-led weekend of giving and serving. Since 1990 fans across the nation have united to tackle hunger and poverty. Last year $8,176,705 was generated nationally through the Souper Bowl of Caring.

Our youth will be holding soup pots at all Masses next weekend. On your way out the door please consider making a donation that will go to feeding the hungry here in the Waterville area. 100% of the money they collect will go directly to a local charity or charities of their choice.

Saint Blaise and the Blessing of Throats

Bishop Blaise was martyred in Sebastea, Armenia, in 316. The legendary Acts of St. Blaise were written 400 years later. According to them Blaise was a good bishop, working hard to encourage the spiritual and physical health of his people. Although the Edict of Toleration (311), granting freedom of worship in the Roman Empire, was already five years old, persecution still raged in Armenia. Blaise was apparently forced to flee to the back country. There he lived as a hermit in solitude and prayer, but he made friends with the wild animals. One day a group of hunters seeking wild animals for the amphitheater stumbled upon Blaise's cave. They were first surprised and then frightened. The bishop was kneeling in prayer surrounded by patiently waiting wolves, lions and bears.

The legend has it that as the hunters hauled Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command the child was able to cough up the bone.

Saint Blaise's feast day is Feb. 3. He is the patron saint of throat ailments

We will have the blessing of the throats at all Masses next weekend—Feb. 2 and 3.

Lord, Teach Me To Pray

Lord, Teach Me To Pray is a prayer series based on Ignatian Spirituality. Part 1, Praying Christian Virtues, helps deepen prayer life, and discover what to do for dryness and obstacles in prayer. It also introduces the different methods of Ignatian prayer, meditation, contemplation and Consciousness Examen. Small groups will meet with trained facilitators for 2 hours once a week for 12 weeks to pray and faith share. Part 1 begins on Mon., Jan 28 from 6:00-8:00PM in the Faith Formation Center in Winslow.

For more information: Rose Desrosiers - 649-2457 or Dan Desrosiers - 449-6705.

Upcoming Diocesan Vocations Office Events

Ice Fishing Weekends

As we head into deep winter, the Vocations Office is once again hosting two ice fishing weekends, one for high school students and one for men over 18. When we're not on the ice, the plan is to watch some John Wayne movies.

High School Weekend: Jan. 25, 26, 27 at Pine Tree Camp in Rome, ME. For more information and to register: <https://goo.gl/forms/cMv8dPdyuDXnO34r2>

Men's (over 18) Weekend: Feb. 1, 2, 3 at Echo Lake Lodge, in Kent's Hill, ME. For more information and to register: <https://goo.gl/forms/XuLq85E146HcN9HL2>

Men's Winter Day of Reflection

For men (over 18) who are not as inclined to go ice fishing, this year the Vocations Office is hosting a day of recollection for men at St. John's in Brunswick on Feb. 10. This will be an informal day of prayer together with a few talks about the Catholic life by local clergy, opportunity for confession and spiritual direction, and some recreation time with other Catholic men who are working to discern God's will in their lives. For more information and to register: <https://goo.gl/forms/T2Iuk2lfYyJRpfpE2>

Mark Your Calendars!

Maine Catholic Women's Conference

Sat., Apr. 6

Portland Marriott at Sable Oaks, South Portland

The conference will feature Mass with Bishop Deeley, dynamic presentations, Eucharistic Adoration, and an expo hall. Gather with other women of faith to celebrate being Catholic and to be renewed in hope and trust that God will provide! Teenage daughters and nieces are encouraged to attend!

Hands of God

The Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

Psalm 121:8

Anyone who would like to gather in a positive Catholic atmosphere for fellowship as we knit, sew, craft, etc., is welcome. Join the parish quilters (enter through the front door of the school and sign in at the school office) on Monday mornings at 9AM. Bring your ideas, your coffee, and your love. For more info contact June Caron 453-6883 or jbwc04@gmail.com.
