JCDA Bottle Drive

Every spring our Catholic Daughters Court awards scholarship money to deserving local high school seniors who are Junior Catholic Daughters. This is funded primarily through our annual bottle/can drive. The JCDA are holding a new modified drive this year. We are now using the Bottledrop program. During June please drop your bottles and cans off at the parish office, and they have our blue bags there to pick up for future use. These blue bags can be dropped at any Bottledrop center- just scan the barcode, drop them in the drawer, and JCDA will be credited. There are a few rules-bags should be full but have a 20 pound limit, no garbage or broken glass inside, and only bring a few blue bags at a time. If you have a personal account at Bottledrop, you can transfer any amount to our JCDA by searching for us under Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court #718. If you would just like to make a donation, you can also do so at the office, payable to JCDA. After June please call Ruth Rava, #503-551-4705, for blue bags or pick up. Thank you!

MAGDALA

Location: Duc in Altum © All rights reserved Magdala

“Encounter”

The Holy Land is loaded with Archeology, but somewhat wanting in the area of ART, although there is this one exception. In Magdala, hidden in a lower chapel of the Duc in Altum Church is this incredible painting by Daniel Carola, entitled, “ENCOUNTER”. It covers the entire wall, it must be at least 30 feet wide. It takes you to the very street level of the hemorraging woman’s touch of Jesus’s robe, there among the feet of the Apostles. You can literally FEEL her Faith as she reaches out.

Try to place yourself beside her. Try to feel HER Faith.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24 | 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15 |
Mk 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” It’s likely we’ve heard and seen Jesus’ reassuring words or even shared them with others. When I read the story of Jairus and his daughter, I thought of a man with whom I spoke recently. As his lungs failed him during a bout with coronavirus, doctors advised him to say good-bye to his wife and daughters before they placed him on a ventilator. “I was expecting to wake up in heaven,” he said, recalling the moment not as one of fear or panic, but of deep peace. In today’s Gospel passage, Jairus had that kind of “fearless faith” as well, placing his daughter’s life wholly in Jesus’ hands even as others in the crowd ridiculed him. When we pray or ask for God’s healing, we can’t know the outcome. But we can pray for the gifts of faith and courage, placing our lives in God’s loving hands.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When I was a child, my aunt would always encourage us to make the sign of the cross when we passed an ambulance or accident scene. In her concern for the strangers at the side of the road, my aunt was giving us a lesson in compassion, which stands in marked contrast to the crowds who ridiculed Jairus as he desperately sought help for his daughter. The Church has a rich tradition of intercessory prayer, encouraging us to pray for the needs of others. Today’s readings remind me that we can share our faith by praying for others who are sick, dying, grieving, or struggling in some way. Likewise, we can ask others to pray for us, trusting that God will hear our prayers.

PRAY Do you ever offer to pray for someone and then completely forget? Try writing each person’s name on a Post-it and placing it on your bedside table. Other ideas: Pray the Rosary while driving or exercising, devoting a decade to each person; include prayers for others when you say Grace before meals; as soon as you offer to pray for someone, drop everything and do it!
