GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 3rd, 2022

5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love.

When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy.

There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

The Holy Sacrament of

Baptism

"Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word." - CCC 1213

In general those wishing to have a child (under age 7) baptized here need to be registered, active members of St. Mary Catholic Church, Mt. Angel for at least six months prior to Baptism.

Parents and Godparent(s) must attend Baptismal Prep classes prior to setting Baptism date, unless excused by the pastor.

Godparent(s) must be Baptized, Confirmed, and practicing Catholics without any impediments. A letter stating such from the godparents' parish (if not from St. Mary's) will need to be submitted.

The birth certificate of the child must also be submitted

If you are not registered with the Parish of Santa Maria and live within the boundaries of another parish, we need a letter of permission from the local Pastor to administer the Sacrament of Baptism.

St. Mary's offers a online BAPTISMAL CLASS online through Agape Ministries. (Please visit website) With Baptisms taking place the third weekend of each month after the Masses, for more information & to register, contact the parish office.

PARISH LIFE

Make a Way

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass?

As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust.

But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new."

The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.

A Message of Gratitude

The family of Don Murtha would like to thank Fr. Ralph, Mark Dol, Cristo Cervantes, Kathy Valdez, Tania Corral and the Catholic Daughters and all the donations, requested Masses, flowers, cards and caring messages. Also thank you to all who sang some of Don's favorite songs at the reception. Don is indeed smiling, so are we.

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manasseri, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.

Meditación del Evangelio

“AQUEL DE USTEDES
QUE NO TENGA
PECADO, QUE LE TIRE
LA PRIMERA PIEDRA”.
- JN 8, 7

5º DOMINGO
DE LA CUARESMA

3 de abril de 2022 - 5º Domingo de la Cuaresma

Como sociedad, estamos muy habituados a juzgar y condenar a la ligera. En cualquier circunstancia, opinamos sin saber los hechos y fácilmente condenamos a las personas, sin conocer las circunstancias que estas gentes viven. Hoy, el Evangelio nos invita a corregir esa parte de nuestra persona que nos mete en serios aprietos por juzgar a la ligera. El Papa Francisco también nos hace enfocar en la parte importante que Jesús muestra a la mujer que fue encontrada en adulterio. “En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús salva de la condena de muerte a la mujer adúltera. Las palabras que Jesús utiliza son palabras de amor y misericordia, son palabras que invitan a la conversión”. “Tampoco yo te condeno. Vete y en adelante no vuelvas a pecar” (Juan 8:11).

Por envidia o por coraje, los enemigos de Jesús pretendían ponerle una trampa para, de una vez por todas, tomarlo por sorpresa y poder acusarlo de no cumplir la ley. Jesús era pura bondad y misericordia, sus actos eran solo para hacer el bien a las personas. Sus milagros ayudaban a superar la pobreza y la injusticia. Ahora, después de escuchar el Evangelio, y a una semana del Domingo de Ramos, cabe que nos preguntemos lo siguiente: ¿Cuántas cosas hacemos en contra de los otros por envidia o por venganza? ¿Hemos enmendado nuestra conducta en esta Cuaresma que está por terminar? ¡Jesús, te lo pido, desde el fondo de mi corazón, enséname a ser misericordioso con los demás! “Todavía es tiempo, dice el Señor, conviértanse a mí de todo corazón, porque soy compasivo y misericordioso” (Joel 2:12-13).
