

Prayer to the MOST HOLY TRINITY

Glory be to the Father,
Who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,
Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces
I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever.
AMEN.

Anointing of the Sick

Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use in order to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Orosco at the Church Office at (972) 563-3643 so that I may be of assistance.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I would like to thank all the teachers, assistants, substitutes, office aides and safety monitors who so generously volunteered their time and talents to the Religious Education program of St. John the Apostle Parish. There are no words that can describe our love and gratitude for your love, patience, generosity, and boundless thoughtfulness for the children of our parish.

Their commitment is extraordinary as they graciously share their Sunday mornings, Tuesday evenings or Wednesday evenings to teach our children about our shared Catholic faith. Their support is vital in the success of the program. We appreciate all your dedication and hard work. You are truly a blessing to our parish.

If you are interested in becoming a Religious Education volunteer, please contact Michelle in the church office at 972-563-3643 or email at michellegobert@sbcglobal.net

The Tenth Week of Ordinary Time

The week begins with Trinity Sunday, which always follows Pentecost. It celebrates the un-knowable relationship between the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit - and their loving support for us in our lives.

Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Barnabas, Apostle. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor of the Church. Thursday, around the world - except the U.S. - the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ.

During the week, we begin a three-week period of looking at the Books of Kings. Elijah follows the Lord's direction and changes the hearts of many. The weekends as Elijah calls Elisha into service for the Lord.

This week we begin reading the Gospel According to Matthew, starting with the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is the new Moses and offers us a new and radical teaching. It begins by his telling a small group of followers that they are blessed - not because they have their acts together, but because they are spiritually poor, meek, those desiring justice, the merciful, the clean of heart, the peacemakers and the persecuted. Salt and light explain who they are as disciples. They are to obey the law and prophets which Jesus came to fulfill. Whereas the law forbade killing, Jesus calls his disciples to be reconcilers. The law forbade adultery, but Jesus warns about lust and whatever is an occasion for sinning. The law forbade taking false oaths, but Jesus calls his disciples to a deeper fidelity and integrity.

Daily Prayer This Week

Having celebrated God's love for us through love shown us by each Person of the Trinity, we are ready to enter this week to explore the depth of that love and the powerful call each of us is given to love one another. The Sermon on the Mount can help us be contemplatives in action this week. The Beatitudes are not eight new commandments. Rather, Jesus saw those following him and saw their weakness and their need, their goodness and their desire, even the cost they pay to follow him. He looked at them and called them "Blessed."

Let us all begin this week letting Jesus look at us and call us blessed. Each morning we can practice choosing to focus our attention on some way we are spiritually poor or desiring justice, some way we are merciful or a peace maker, some way we might be experiencing the cost of being a believer, and simply asking our Lord to convince us of our blessedness there. It is likely that each of us, every day, can be attentive to some aspect of our daily lives, some part of our relationships or responsibilities, that place us right there in a place for Jesus to tell us that we will be comforted, satisfied, blessed beyond our imagining.

Some day this week, each of us will have the opportunity to be the salt that makes relationships, faithful living, have its flavor. We will have our chances to be light in the midst of the darkness that crosses our paths. We can ask Jesus those days - whether in the morning, or in brief background moments during the day - to have us not lose our flavor or to cover our light. And, all of us will face the greater responsibility of a disciple of Jesus, to avoid anger and find the path to reconciliation, to turn from lust and greed and to love genuinely and honestly.

It is a wonderful week to remember the tremendous gift of the Body and Blood of Jesus, given to us for our nourishment and an example of self-sacrificing love. We can take time to express our gratitude and humbly ask for the grace to be able to be broken and given, shared and poured out, as our Savior is for us.

Oración a la Santísima Trinidad

Que la Santísima Trinidad:
Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo estén con nosotros, el Padre nos guarde, el Hijo nos guíe y
el Espíritu Santo nos ilumine.
La Santísima Trinidad estén con nosotros, nos guarden y nos libren en todo momento
y lugar. También te pedimos que protejas nuestro trabajo, casa, familia y negocios.
En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo
y del Espíritu Santo de Dios.
Amén.

Quiero dar las gracias a todas las catequistas, asistentes, sustitutos, ayudantes de oficina y monitores de seguridad que tan generosamente ofrecieron su tiempo y talentos al programa de Educación Religiosa de la Parroquia de San Juan Apóstol. No hay palabras que puedan describir nuestro amor y gratitud por su amor, paciencia, generosidad y consideración sin límites para los estudiantes de nuestra parroquia.

Su compromiso es extraordinario, ya que comparten con gracia sus mañanas de domingo, martes o miércoles por la noche para enseñar a nuestros estudiantes acerca de nuestra fe católica. Su apoyo es vital en el éxito del programa. Agradecemos toda su dedicación y trabajo duro. Son verdaderamente una bendición para nuestra parroquia.

EN LA LITURGIA CELEBRAMOS LO QUE CREEMOS

La Iglesia ora lo que cree, y para este domingo ha establecido una fiesta que nos recuerda una verdad fundamental: Dios es Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo.

- La gran mayoría de las oraciones de nuestra liturgia están dirigidas al Padre, por Cristo, en el Espíritu Santo.
- Fuimos bautizados “en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo”, y toda oración cristiana la iniciamos “en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo”.

Adoremos al único Dios verdadero en tres Personas distintas.
