Deacon Formation...

Two St. Clare parishioners, Dan Kimutis and Len Ratajczyk, are close to finishing a five year Deacon Formation Program with our Diocese. Their formation training has included in depth learning on topics related to Scripture, Church History, Sacraments and Spirituality. The formation process prepares them for the Ministry of Deacon including service to the parish and local community. Please keep them in your prayers as they approach their ordination which will be on June 3, 2023 at St. Peter Cathedral in Belleville.

Dan and Kris

Dan Kimutis grew up in Belleville and attended St. Augustine of Canterbury. Dan has degrees in engineering and business and his lifelong career has been in manufacturing engineering and management. Dan and his wife, Kris, of 36 years, moved to O'Fallon and joined St. Clare in 2013. Their three children, Jared (Monica) lives in Knoxville TN, Alyssa (Stephen) in London, England and Nicole (Justin) live in Hamel, IL. They also have 6 grandchildren. Dan and Kris are members of our choir, EMs and Dan is a reader at Mass, Adoration Prayer leader, active in Men's retreats and leads the homebound ministry.

Len and Tami

Len Ratajczyk grew up in Scheller, IL at St. Barbara Parish. At 18 he joined the military and spent 25 years in the Air Force. Len married Tami in 1999 during a military assignment in Washington State. Tami and Len now live in O'Fallon, and their son, Ian, and daughter, Sophie, both live in nearby Lebanon. They have been members of St. Clare since 2010 and Len has been active in the ministries of Sacristan, Altar Server Coordinator and EM.

Be sure to visit our Deacon Formation page: stclarechurch.org/deacon-formation.

Recent Death: Margaret "Marge" Rademacher, Mother of Kevin (Linda), Joe (Tammy) Rademacher, Diane (Jim), Donna (Joe), Debbie (Manny), and many grandchildren. All services will be held next week at Marge's home parish, St. Nicholas. May she rest in the peace and love of Christ. We pray for all who have died and all who are mourning.

ARE YOU READY?
24 Hour Eucharistic Adoration
November 6/7

November is the month we honor saints who have lived holy lives and Saints who have lived exemplary lives, remembering and praying for All Souls and the Holy Souls in Purgatory. We pilgrimage through this last month of the liturgical year with hope for our own heavenly reward proclaiming Jesus as Christ the King, and enter into the season of Advent looking inward at our own life, preparing to meet our Savior, God Incarnate in the Word made flesh, not only at Christmas, but when He calls us home.

Make time to sit with Jesus Truly Present in the Blessed Sacrament during this month's Adoration, asking for His plan for you to grow in holiness and how He is calling you closer to Himself so that you'll allow Him to take your burdens, struggles and sins and create in you a new, clean and holy heart.

If you are able to commit to an hour, Sign Up sheets are on the round table in the Gathering Space, or sign up online at stclarechurch.org/24 for half- hour increments. The church will be locked from 7PM Sunday– 7AM Monday. Call the parish office (618-632-3562) this week for the keypad code to enter church. If you can't commit, COME ANYTIME...JESUS IS READY!
