Choosing Holy Moments...

This past Christmas, we handed out 1,200 free copies of the book "Holy Moments" by Matthew Kelly, thanks to a generous donor. We ran out before everyone got one, which is good news in a sense.

You may have received another copy in your US Mail recently or heard someone say they got a free book mailed to them. We were blessed again with a generous donor who wanted every household in our region to get a copy of this simple, inspiring book. Copies were mailed to all households in 6 surrounding zip codes, including people of all denominations and those who have no faith community.

The goal is to encourage all of us to keep choosing holy moments in all our words and actions. I hope that this wide, diverse audience mailing will inspire each of us to talk to neighbors, friends and family about the power behind creating and choosing our Holy Moments...one moment at a time.

Holy Moments are Jesus Moments. Make it a goal within your family and friends to notice, affirm, and encourage one another when we see them creating holy moment...bringing Jesus' vision of unity and peace among us.

Thank YOU for the ways you are making holy moments happen in our parish and local community.

God's Peace,
Fr. Jim Deiters

Recent Deaths:

Dr. Max Gomez, Brother of Deacon John (Mary) Gomez

Tim Stewart, Brother of Jeanne (Ken) Smith

May God welcome them joyfully in to His loving arms.

We pray for all the faithful departed and all who are mourning the death of a loved one.

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted, and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

The Feed My Lambs Program has wrapped up its 2023 season. We want to take this opportunity to send a heartfelt thank you to all who contributed to making this season successful!

We appreciate all the generous donations of food, the volunteers who made lunches, and the drivers who delivered them! You were amazing!! Because of these generous contributors, St. Clare Church was able to provide 1,061 lunches to those in need. If you are unfamiliar with what the Feed My Lambs program is; it is a group of local churches & the O'Fallon YMCA who come together to provide free sack lunches to children who live in the O'Fallon/Shiloh area. These are children who would not be receiving a lunch in the summer because school is not in session.

Our St Clare program was started many years ago, and chaired, by Jeanette Giebels. Sadly, we lost Jeanette this year. Those who knew her, knew that it was always all about the kids. She will be greatly missed, and always remembered for her faithful volunteering in many ministries.
