Anthem (5:00) All Things Bright and Beautiful

William Partridge (b. 1936)

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

Each little flow'r that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colors,
he made their tiny wings.

The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them, ev'ry one.

The purple-headed mountain,
the river running by,
the sunset, and the morning
that brightens up the sky.

He gave us eyes to see them,
and lips that we might tell
how great is God Almighty,
who has made all things well.

Antiphon (10:30) A Prayer of Charles de Foucault

Paul French (b.1959)

Father, I abandon myself into your hands,
Do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do, I thank you;
Let only your will be done in me.
And in all your creatures.
I wish no more than this, O Lord,
that your will be done.
Into your hands
I commend my entire being;

I offer myself to you
with all the love of my heart.

For I do love you Lord,
and do desire to give myself to you,
to surrender myself into your hands
without reserve and
with boundless confidence,
for you are my Father.
