

Universal Prayer
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 7

We pray in communion with the Church for the monthly intention of Pope Francis: that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

We pray for the Church: that she may always have great respect for the poorest and weakest in her midst, who are often the most generous in the sight of God.

We pray for equity in our world: that, with the Lord, we may seek to secure justice for the oppressed, give food to the hungry, set captives free, and raise up all who are bowed down.

We pray for the men and women of our military who are currently serving our country in active duty; in thanksgiving for the service of our nation's veterans; and for an end to war and violence throughout the world.

We pray for the grace of strong Catholic families; and that parents may be generous when God asks for their children to consecrate themselves to the spread of the Gospel.

We pray for our relationship with our sister parish, Our Lord of Esquipulas, in Guatemala:

that both parishes may continue to spread the joy of the gospel and be strengthened by each other's faith, prayers, perseverance, and generosity.

We pray for the faithful departed: that the perfect sacrifice of this Holy Mass may follow them before God's throne, obtaining mercy and peace...especially those whose names are written in our Book of the Dead, and whose pictures are placed in our devotional shrines...and for...
