

Universal Prayer
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 20

 We pray for the Church, God's miracle of mercy, gathered from all nations and made acceptable at His altar: that she may be the faithful sacrament of mercy to all.

 We pray for peoples of the world: that they may take seriously their duty to speak out for moral principles, preserving the order that supports the gift of peace.

 We pray for all who are recovering from the power of nature or other disasters: that God will give them courage, ease their pain, and speed the resources that they need.

We pray for all who are seeking the Lord's healing in mind, body, or spirit: that their cry and our faithful intercession for them will bring them the grace needed for their affliction.

We pray for an end to discrimination: that God, who has delivered all and shown mercy, may soften our hearts to recognize all of his children as our brothers and sisters.

 We pray for our faithful departed ones: that God may let His face shed its light upon them in the kingdom of heaven
