A Word From Fr. Timothy Sandquist

Pastor Installation

As of July 1st, I am now officially the pastor of Most Holy Redeemer/St. Canice and St. Patrick’s. This begins a 6-year term that includes the possibility of being renewed. I am grateful to serve here! There has been a lot to learn, but I have enjoyed it greatly!

Archbishop Hebda will be coming to celebrate my Installation Mass which will take place Sunday, August 10th 9:30am at St. Patrick’s. The usual Masses that Sunday morning will be cancelled. Afterwards, we will have hamburgers and other picnic foods. I have specially requested one of my favorite desserts - apple crisp! (As crispy as possible!)

MHR Roof Update

As they have been working on our roof, Simon Brick and Stone Co. discovered that the parapet by the bell tower was in a bit worse shape than we thought. Nevertheless, providing the weather cooperates, they should be finished with their part soon. After the bricks and mortar are repaired, the flashing will be replaced by separate roofing company.

St. Patrick’s Parish House

The Greg and Anna Rynda family has temporarily moved into the St. Patrick's parish house as they look for a new home for their family. Since the rectory has been underutilized this past year, I think this is a wonderful opportunity for both the parish and their family. Greg is a carpenter, so I am confident that they will look after the house well. They will rent at a modest, but fair price.

-Fr. Timothy
