A Word From Fr. Timothy Sandquist

Triumph of the Heart Movie

I mentioned last week that there would be a showing of the new movie about St. Maximillian Kolbe in Mankato. Believe it or not, that showing has already sold out! Divine Mercy in Faribault is promoting another showing of the movie on Friday, September 19th at 7pm. The location of this showing is TBD – either in Owatonna or Dundas. The cost is $17 per ticket. The deadline to buy tickets is this Wednesday, August 27th. The easiest way to buy tickets is to use a smartphone to scan the QR code to the right and order them online. Or you can also search for the screening on triumphoftheheart.com. Finally, the Divine Mercy school office can register you if you drop by and provide them with your payment and contact information by Wednesday.

MHRS Marathon Students

Students will be in the back of the church after most Masses at Most Holy Redeemer for the next month asking for donations and pledges for their annual Marathon School fundraiser. Donations to the MHRS Marathon will be matched by Alumnus Bob Washa, up to $25,000.

Fall Festival Raffle Tickets

Raffle tickets for the Most Holy Redeemer Fall Festival will also be on a table in the back of the church by the elevator. Every registered parishioner has a raffle ticket envelope with their name on it. We aren’t able to mail the raffle tickets out as we are legally required to keep all unsold raffle tickets. Thank you for supporting this parish fundraiser!

MHR History Talk

As part of the Montgomery Museum in the Streets series, Dale Ruhland will be giving a talk in Most Holy Redeemer church about the parish’s history on Saturday, August 30th at 10am. The talk will include the story of the parish going back to St. John’s mission church, the construction of the current church, the stained-glass windows, the organ, and more.

-Fr. Timothy
