A Word From Fr. Timothy Sandquist

Family Formation Night Notes

I gave talks about the Mass to all of our Faith Formation families in the past couple weeks. I’d like to share a few of the main points. First, the Mass is not just a human invention, it was given to us directly by Jesus when at the Last Supper, He said, “Do this in Memory of Me.” Second, the Mass, at its core, doesn’t change. We celebrate the same Mass here in Minnesota as Catholics do in Japan, India, Uganda, and Mexico. Not only is the Mass the same across the world, it is the same across history. St. Justin Martyr wrote a description of the Mass in 155 AD that is strikingly similar to what we do today. And third, the Mass is almost all scripture. From the “Glory to God in the Highest” to the “Holy Holy Holy” to the “Behold the Lamb of God,” the words of the Mass are almost all taken from the bible.

St. John’s Cemetery Chapel

I am happy to share that the exterior work on the St. John’s Cemetery Chapel is now complete. As noted last month, an anonymous donor generously funded the full replacement of the siding with a durable, high-quality material. I would like to mention permission may be sought from me to use this chapel for Catholic ceremonies such as blessings for major wedding anniversaries. Please be sure, however, to reach out with reasonable advance notice.

In loving memory of

Ray Chlan

By the Chlan Family

Thank you to everyone who joined us for Family Fun Night last week! We are so grateful for your presence and for the wonderful sense of community we continue to build together at MHRS. It was a joyful and faith-filled evening for all. We were also blessed to have Keri Barnett and Claire Meadows accompany our 3rd–8th grade students to the cemetery on Friday afternoon to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The students were reverent and respectful as we prayed together for those who have gone before us. We are looking for students and families who would like to volunteer to walk with our MHRS float in the Torchlight Parade on Thu, Dec 4. Our theme this year is “Glow with God.” Line-up will take place before 6:30 p.m. If your child would like to participate by sitting on the float or if you are able to walk with us, please let me know. Additionally, if Singing Angels members will be caroling at local businesses before the parade, please let me know by Friday, so we can plan routes and supervision. This is a wonderful way for our students to share joy and music with the community! On behalf of all the staff at MHRS, I want to wish you a very happy Thanksgiving and safe travels to all families who will be away from home. We are truly blessed to work with such faith-filled and supportive families each day.

In Christ, Mrs. Marsh

In the Level III atrium,

(ages 9-12) the children begin a more in depth study of our seven sacraments looking at the symbols & definitions for each sacrament. They ponder the inward & spiritual graces that come with each sacrament as well as the outward signs. They spend time in the bible looking at references that prefigure the sacraments or refer to them in some more direct way. Becoming familiar with using the bible, being able to find their way around in it, & experiencing it as God's Word speaking directly to us is a beautiful gift given to the children in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.
