A Word From Fr. Timothy Sandquist

Mission Preacher

This weekend we welcome Fr. Bill Vos who is here on behalf of the Maryknoll Lay Missionaries who serve globally in Latin America, Asia, and Africa in health care, education, pastoral work, and grass roots development. I will be with high schoolers attending the Steubenville Youth Conference in Rochester.

Campaign Final Report

We have now officially wrapped up the Lord Renew Your Church campaign. This campaign was broadly successful, as the 40 parishes of our wave collectively achieved 139% of the overall wave goal. Most Holy Redeemer came in second place of all the parishes of our wave, coming in only 1% behind Nativity in Cleveland at 311% of goal. Of the $792,575 in pledges raised, $652,000 will remain with Most Holy Redeemer. St. Patrick’s – coming in at 129% of goal – raised $348,70 in pledges, $224,000 of which will remain at the parish. Thank you so much to the volunteers who assisted me in reaching out to parishioners and to the approximately 100 Most Holy Redeemer and 45 St. Patrick’s households who pledged!

Leaks, Leaks, Leaks

The campaign couldn’t have come soon enough as many facility needs are upon us. This year, the number of leaks have required – or still require – attention has reached eight!

Earlier this summer, St. Patrick’s repaired the roof over the water tank room. St. Canice repaired several toilet leaks in the social hall. Most Holy Redeemer continues to address two small leaks in the church roof, three leaks in the church basement, one longstanding leak in the flat roof over the school boiler room, and one large boiler pipe in the school that began leaking in May. We are actively working with several contractors to get these fixed.

July 15th Hot Dogs on the Playground

We’re having one more Hot Dogs on the Playground family event at 5pm on Wednesday, July 15th on the new playground behind the MRHS school. Come play and eat!

-Fr. Timothy
