A Word From Fr. Timothy Sandquist

Greetings from Annecy, France - the city of St. Francis de Sales! I am here on pilgrimage with the Companions of Christ and about 35 brother priests, visiting the places where this great saint lived, preached, and wrote.

St. Francis de Sales is especially known for his spiritual classic, Introduction to the Devout Life, which has helped countless Christians grow in holiness.

One of his most beautiful insights is his definition of devotion. He distinguishes devotion from love by saying,

"What devotion adds to the fire of love is that flame which makes it eager, energetic and diligent, not merely in obeying God's Commandments, but in fulfilling His Divine Counsels and inspirations."

And so, devotion to God is more than just about following rules. It is about having your heart set on fire.

St. Francis strongly emphasized the point that devotion is not something reserved for priests or religious, but for everyone - even in the ordinary circumstances of life.

May St. Francis de Sales intercede for all of us, that our love for Christ may become ever more eager, energetic, and joyful.

- Fr. Timothy
