

PARISH OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

HOLY MARTYRS SACRED HEART ST GREGORY ST JUDE
SEPTEMBER 2, 2018, TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ONE WORLD, ONE MISSION
MISSIONARY SUNDAY 2018

The

Irish Pallottine
Missionary Center

Society of the Catholic Apostolate
(Mother of Divine Love Province)

SOCIETY OF OUR LADY of the Most Holy Trinity

Mission Appeal Weekend on September 1 & 2.

This weekend we welcome Fr. Zachary from the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy and Fr. Brendan McCarrick of the Irish Pallottine Missionary Center. as Missionary speakers at our Masses.

Fr. McCarrick, SAC. will speak about the missionary work of the Irish Pallottines in Tanzania, Kenya and Colombia.

Fr. Zachary will be speaking on the SOLT missions. The apostolic works of SOLT vary depending upon the needs and requests of the local bishop. Various SOLT ministries include drug rehabilitation, parish work, education at all levels, work with the destitute, health care, radio evangelization, and an orphanage. Living a joyful life, SOLT serves humanity in fourteen countries throughout the world. SOLT needs your help to continue its missionary work.

We invite you to support their work through your prayers, consideration of a volunteer opportunity and financial support. The second collection taken up today will be used to support the work of evangelization and development of these two missionary groups.

Circle of Grace:

Safe Environment Training Series – Part I

Our parish leads annual sessions for all children and teens who are enrolled in our Faith Formation groups each Fall at our four churches. Parents are asked to join their children and teens for one initial session. An annual report is submitted to the Diocese of Portland. Circle of Grace follow-up conversations and trainings will occur throughout the year. We support our Diocese's choice for a faith-based and clinically sound resource called "Circle of Grace" which was developed by the Archdiocese of Omaha. It expresses our deep and committed desire to keep our parish youth safe and secure.

In our parish, every gathering space provides clear visibility of group sessions. No child is EVER left alone with a teacher, catechist, mentor, leader, or member of our clergy. Though a trained and certified Catechist or Facilitator may legitimately be the sole leader or facilitator of a group, we strive to provide 2 trained adults per group. As we move forward with our model of family formation, we are happy that parents assist us in being present to their own children as they learn together.

What is a Circle of Grace?

The Catholic Church teaches that God has created each of us as unique and special. In that goodness, we are meant to respect ourselves and everyone else as persons created and loved by God. Adults assist young people to recognize God's love by helping them to understand that each of us lives and moves in a Circle of Grace. As symbolized by the image above this text, you can imagine your own Circle of Grace by putting your arms above your head, then circling down in front of your body and side to side. This circle, front to back, top to bottom, holds who you are in your body and through your senses. It holds your very essence in mind, heart, soul, and sexuality. (Part II next week)

Lord Teach me to Pray Part 1 invites men to come learn more about how to "Pray the Christian Virtues" while deepening your own relationship with Jesus. The 12-week sessions begin on Tuesday, September 4, 2018 from 7-8:30 pm at St. Gregory Church in Gray. For more information or to register call Deacon Dennis @ 553-2023 or email dennis.popadak@portlanddiocese.org.

Hour of Power will resume in October.

In August, as part of a grand jury report released in Pennsylvania, a priest named John Pascal Sabas was listed as an individual accused of sexual abuse of a minor. Though not a priest of the Diocese of Portland, the grand jury report stated that he served in Maine in the early 1960s at Sacred Heart Church in Yarmouth and St. Joseph Church in Portland. The abuse was reported as having occurred in Pennsylvania after he left Maine. A subsequent review of our files shows that no allegations have been received concerning this priest. All the same, the diocese encourages any victims/survivors of this priest to come forward and contact civil authorities as well as Michael Magalski, Director of the Office of Professional Responsibility for the Diocese of Portland, at (207) 321-7836 or michael.magalski@portlanddiocese.org. As always, the diocese wants to do what it can to assist, if at all possible, in a process which leads to healing. Our prayers and sorrow extend to all victims/survivors and their families. May our Loving Father continue to send his Spirit over us to guide our vigilance in providing for the care and safety of all in our Church.

All men of POTHE are invited to join us for a spiritually uplifting weekend. Say yes! Take some quality time for God and yourself. Plan to attend the retreat November 8 to mid-day November 11. For additional information about ACTS, and to register on line, please visit our parish website, click on Faith Formation. FMI contact Peter Mullaney 329-5889.

We are asking for input from the men in our parish to help us achieve these goals. Please take a few minutes to fill out our survey which we have placed in all churches. You can also complete it online here:

Consoling the Heart of Jesus begins September 11. Join Happy Copley for a Book Study/Retreat inspired by St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises and rooted in St. Faustina's Diary.

Holy Martyrs, Tuesdays at 10:30 am beginning September 11. Register now on the website or call Happy at 272-2346.

Financial Peace University We all need a plan for our money. Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University (FPU) is that plan! It teaches God's ways of handling money. Through video teaching, class discussions, and interactive small group activities, FPU presents biblical, practical steps to get from where you are to where you've dreamed you could be. This plan will show you how to get rid of debt, manage your money, spend and save wisely, and much more! Fall session of FPU classes will meet for nine consecutive weeks. First session is Tuesday, September 18, 6:30 pm at Holy Martyrs. Our facilitators are parishioners Scott & Laurie Carpenter. Register on our parish website or by going to <https://fpu.com/1064907>

RCIA — the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Many adults entering the Catholic Church, or those just thinking about it, follow the RCIA process. The first stage is INQUIRY. If you are thinking of being Catholic or wish to receive the sacraments of Confirmation & Eucharist, come to an Inquiry evening to speak with other inquirers, our priest or RCIA leader, and parish mentors. Perhaps you have questions and uncertainties about some of the Catholic Church's teachings and traditions? Our next Inquiry evening is September 12, 6:30 pm at Sacred Heart. FMI: Georgette Dionne - 553-9076 or georgette.dionne@portlanddiocese.org.
