I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

Spiritual Communion: "My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you." Amen."

FOLLOWING JESUS TO THE ULTIMATE GOAL

Jeremiah was a reluctant, but powerful prophet. He came up with many reasons why he should not be a prophet but trusted in God. In the first reading, we hear that he regrets that decision but cannot stop prophesying. In last week's Gospel, God the Father inspires Peter to make the confession of faith that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God. Jesus appoints him as the leader of the Apostles. This week, Peter attempts to convince Jesus to not follow God's path, to take an easier, safer one.

This may seem very strange to our modern sensibilities. Why would Jeremiah confess his doubts instead of keeping them to himself if he were going to prophesy anyway? Why would Matthew detract from Peter's primacy three lines after he is praised by Jesus? We are accustomed to sanitizing the past of our leaders and making excuses for missteps. As God's Revelation, the Scriptures have a different agenda. These inspired words want us to clearly understand that to follow God is difficult. We will constantly have self-doubts and obstacles placed in our way. We will not always have clarity to see the path of God. In all this, however, God promises to be with us, to sustain us, to lead us.

St. Paul in the second reading exhorts us to not "conform to this age." Like Jeremiah, we will hear voices that criticize us for our following Christ. We may well be threatened, if not for our lives, then with the loss of relationships, rewards, success, or in our reputation. Like Peter, we may believe that avoiding suffering and sacrifice makes for a happier life. Think about all the messages that you receive every day to fit in, to be popular, to succeed at all costs, to accept beliefs that you have questions about, but are not allowed to question.

Our ultimate goal is heaven and union with God. God has created us for this very reason. He promises to sustain us for the journey. Jesus promises to lead us, which is why Peter is told to get behind him. You and I do not have to re-create the manual on how to reach heaven. We simply need to be present to Jesus.

Practically, this can mean several things. First, listen to your heart, your yearnings, as Jeremiah did. He was tempted to shut up but realized that he could not do so. For those of us who are formed in the faith, we almost always recognize when we are choosing poorly. We may not always have the strength to avoid sin, but our conscience informs us that we are not living in God's light. Knowing where we are weak helps us to ask for God's strength. Secondly, cultivate good Catholic relationships. Have relationships where you can explore God's word and plan. See people who are persevering in their faith despite obstacles and challenges. Observe what virtuous living can look like and be that example for others. Finally, spend quality time in prayer and reflection. Learn to distinguish the Lord's voice from all the other voices competing for our attention. His words may not always be warm and fuzzy. He may indeed sternly tell us allow him to lead us. However, at least we will be more confident in the direction that we are going!!

22nd Sunday in Ordinary TimeLET US PRAY

"In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. O God, you are my God, whom I seek. You are my help. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord, My God." (Psalm 63) In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

GOSPEL BACKGROUND:MATTHEW 16:21-27

Jesus makes clear to his friends and disciples that he will suffer greatly and be killed AND be raised from the dead on the third day. His loved ones cannot accept this truth and they say that there must be a way to prevent this. Jesus reacts strongly to their objections. He tells them that whomever follows Him must pick up and carry the crosses in her/his life, trusting that Jesus is with them.

FAMILY CONVERSATION:

1. Have I ever received sad, life-changing news that I did not want to believe or accept?
2. What were the circumstances?
3. What or who helped me to come to terms with this news?
4. What did this event do to my faith or trust in God?
5. How would I help someone in this situation? How would I help to restore faith in someone else during or after a tragedy?

Here is someone who lived through great tragedy and whom God helped to redeem pain with great service to her family and the world!

Meet St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, born in New York City in 1774, two years before the United States itself was born!

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, is the first native-born American citizen to be canonized a saint. She was not born in a Catholic family but in a wealthy and faithful Episcopalian family in New York City. When Elizabeth was a little girl, her mother died. Shortly after, her baby sister died. Her father made sure that Elizabeth received the best education possible in the American colonies. As a schoolgirl Elizabeth looked forward to the time when she could care for the sick, especially those who were poor.

At age 19, she married William Magee Seton, a wealthy businessman. They had 5 children to care for. Eventually, her husband's business went bankrupt and they moved in with her father, who died shortly after. William contracted tuberculosis and they moved to Italy, so that he could recuperate; instead, his health got worse and he died. Elizabeth became a widow at age 29, penniless and raising 5 children, two of whom died at a young age. While in Italy, Elizabeth had great support from Catholic friends. She eventually felt called to convert to Catholicism after seeing the faith in action through family friends. She came to believe in the Real Presence of the Eucharist. She developed a great devotion to our Blessed Mother and was convinced that the Catholic Church was truly apostolic, linking back to the Apostles and to Christ Himself, as the founder. Elizabeth's sister-in-law also converted but she was not supported by many in her family and among friends.

She started the first congregation of sisters in the US, the Sisters of Charity, in 1809 in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Its school was the first free Catholic school in America. This marked the start of the Catholic parochial school system in the United States. The Sisters of Charity focused on education, children and the poor. Elizabeth Seton was called Mother Seton. Her favorite prayer was Psalm 23. She died of tuberculosis on January 4, 1821 at the age of 46. (Adapted from epicpew.com)

IMPORTANT NOTICE RE: MASS SCHEDULE CHANGES

Beginning next weekend, we will have the following changes for the mass schedule in September.

- At Sacred Heart, the Sunday morning 11am mass will move to 8am.
- At St. Gregory's, the Sunday morning 8:30 mass will move to Saturday at 4pm.

Message from Fr. Phill about this change:

We will use September to evaluate this schedule, with the hope of alternating this schedule monthly, if warranted. I wish to remind parishioners that the Obligation to Attend Sunday Mass is still suspended. Those who are currently attending masses have been able to attend fairly frequently over the past few months. Some of your brothers and sisters have said that these two masses are the only ones that they can attend. In justice, I believe it is important to respond to that request. After having gone from March 17th to June 1st with no one having the opportunity to receive Holy Communion, I hope that parishioners who are able can adjust their schedules to attend the masses they can, or that they will offer opportunity for those who have not received from March 17th to come to mass for a few weeks.

For more information on mass times & info, check out page 2 of the bulletin or the parish website at: pothe.org

From September 23 through November 1, you are invited to join other volunteers for 40 Days for Life – 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You are also invited to stand and peacefully pray during a 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside Planned Parenthood, 443 Congress Street in Portland and to help spread the word about this important community outreach.

If you would like more information – and especially if you'd like to volunteer to help, please contact: Joanne or Claudia at (207) 613-5910 or visit us on the web address shown below:

PARISH PICNIC NEWS:

Like most experiences in this new world, this year's picnic will look differently than in past years. However, we are still eager to offer an opportunity for fellowship & games. We will need to adapt the meal and have everyone bring a personal picnic lunch or let us know if you would prefer the possibility of a boxed lunch.

Regardless, the fun will still be in the gathering! We will have the lake right there for swimming, and our regular lawn games will be set up (with sanitizers available all around). Feel free to bring some comfy lawn chairs and a picnic blanket if you like.

We weren't sure if we would need to split the picnic time into two seatings, but it looks like that won't be necessary, so we are planning to have the picnic open from noon to 3 pm. Please feel free to arrive and leave as you wish.

Please sign up at our parish website, so we can plan and know what your preferences are.

We look forward to seeing you there! ☺

Then, in red, "St. Gregory's Church" and "Saturday, September 5". The bottom half has a green background with a white picnic table and a basket. The text "Swimming Kickball • Lawn games and Karaoke" is in yellow. At the bottom, in green, is "This year's Parish Picnic may look different, but it will still be lots of fun! Join us!". At the very bottom, in yellow, is "RSVP: Sign-up for the picnic at www.pothe.org/parish-events".
