JUNE 26, CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS CAMPAIGN

SECOND COLLECTION: Through websites, social networks, television, radio, and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media locally and nationally. Half of all donations to the CCC collected in your diocese stay in your diocese to support your local communications needs, such as radio and television programming and diocesan publications.

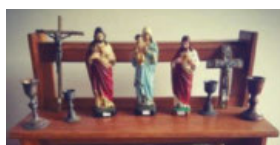

2022 CATHOLIC APPEAL PROGRESS REPORT: Here is our progress in Week 4 of the Catholic Appeal comparing this year with last year. To contribute to the Diocese of Portland Catholic Appeal 2022: Living the Faith campaign, please visit <https://portlanddiocese.org/give>.

2022 CATHOLIC APPEAL - LIVING THE FAITH: Have you and your family prayerfully discerned and submitted your pledge for this year's Catholic Appeal? Envelopes can be found in each pew or you can support the Appeal by giving securely online at <https://portlanddiocese.org/give>.

FRIENDSHIP HOUSE: Many thanks to the contributors to our meal for the men at Friendship House in early June. Several people brought substantial homemade dishes: couscous/vegetables, a pasta salad main dish, and potato salad. Others brought local vegetables, fruit, butter, cheese, bagels, croissants, strawberries, bread, peanut butter, and cookies. We also received paper goods and a bag of toiletries. A big thank you from the men, who received our provisions with enthusiasm and gratitude. We will deliver another meal on Wednesday, July 6. If you have any questions, please contact Deborah Nicklas at dpnicklas@gmail.com or (207)272-0951.

DONATION OF RELIGIOUS GOODS:

Do you have old religious goods that you would like to get rid of but don't know what to do with? Are there statues, books, rosaries, or sacramentals for which you would like to find a good home? The department of faith formation is accepting donations of religious goods for our FIRE and RCIA programs. For more information, contact Joe Moreshead at joseph.moreshead@portlanddiocese.org.

From Deacon Dennis

Thank You! to Fr. Cartwright for providing me this opportunity to address any rumors that may be circulating and to clarify my status in the parish. After several months of discernment and conversations with our former pastor, Fr. Tracy, our current pastor, Fr. Cartwright, Deacon Peter Bernier and others, I have submitted my letter to Bishop Deeley requesting him to grant me the status as a Senior Deacon, beginning July 1st of this year. This means that I will no longer have administrative duties or responsibilities to the parish, but will still be a deacon who will continue to serve in the parish for liturgical functions (i.e. still preach the homily once a month-rotating with the priests; assist at the altar mostly at St. Gregory the Great in Gray; be responsible for intake, processing, scheduling, and preparing parents for celebrating Baptisms and making sure they are recorded in the Baptismal Register)

Because I am stepping down from most administrative duties, there will be an informal gathering of staff to mark this departure. However, since I will be celebrating my 25th Anniversary of Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate on June 14, 2023, there will be a larger, parish event planned for that occasion. For twenty-four years, it has been an honor and privilege to have served the four churches, that now comprise the one Parish of the Holy Eucharist. I look forward to continuing those relationships with the many families that I have come to know and cherish.

Yours in Christ,
Deacon Dennis & Beverly Popadak

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND PEACE HAITI DOOR COLLECTION:

Each June, our parish transfers financial support to the Haiti church as part of our 25-year commitment to helping the Meyer and Marbial parishes and the three Sisters residing in Meyer/Cyvadier. We are able to offer this support because of steadfast parishioner support. Please, consider making a donation during our July 3 Masses at the Haiti Sunday Door Collection, or give online through We Share. One day it might be possible to meet the Haitian priests, as in the past, with a visit to Maine. Meanwhile, everyone can brush up on their French.

PARISH SEXTON OPENING: This position provides cleaning services, including trash removal, floor mopping/buffing, vacuuming, restroom cleaning, snow removal, light repair work, hall setup, etc. in the four churches, four parish centers, chapels, parish offices, and the rectories of the Parish of the Holy Eucharist. For more details about the position and for applying, please see our website under current job postings found under our Basics tab at <https://pothe.org/current-job-descriptions>.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Service, Ministry, and Pastoral Life

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING DRIVE: Thank you for your generosity and support of our request for donations. We are now accepting casual summer clothing. Our high-priority needs are for men's pants/shorts, and undergarments and socks for both men and women. Other items in need for men and women are as follows: tops, pants, shorts, sweatshirts, shoes, and sneakers. For more information, contact Evelyn Pierce at (207) 447-1086.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOUP KITCHEN: The Soup Kitchen has reopened for sit-down, hot lunches. The kitchen is open M-F from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Any time you can give is greatly appreciated. For more information, call Evelyn at (207) 447-1086.

PRAYER SHAWL GROUP: The Prayer Shawl Knitters have been busy knitting and crocheting. Prayer shawls are used to bring comfort to those in any stressful or uncomfortable situation. Many prayers and blessings are prayed into each stitch, and when finished, our shawls are blessed by a priest. We meet the second Tuesday of every month at Sacred Heart from 2-4 PM. Our next meeting is July 12. If you know someone in need of a prayer shawl or have questions about our ministry, please contact Bonnie Faulkner at (207) 846-0817 or celtic20@icloud.com. We deliver!

CENTERING PRAYER GROUP: Ever wondered what centering prayer is? Centering prayer one of the oldest practices in the Christian tradition exercised by the desert fathers and mothers of the 4th century and inspired by St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Liseux, and Thomas Merton. Centering prayer is a way of cultivating a relationship with God by simply resting in Him beyond thoughts, words, or emotions. We use the The Daily Reader for Contemplative Living, compiled by S. Stephanie Lachetta, to guide our group. If you would like to learn more about this practice, join us Tuesday mornings from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM at Holy Martyrs. Our next meeting is Tuesday, June 29. For more information contact Kara Salvadore at (207) 650-2925 or Barbara Keefe at bkeefe20@gmail.com.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED:

Drop-in open house at Holy Martyrs church on Saturday, July 2 from 10:30 AM to 1:30 PM. We are collecting clean, gently worn baby, children, and teen clothing for Moms who need help. Need a ride or have questions? Call Kim Palli at (207) 271-3133 or email oldfarmlane@yahoo.com.

ADVENT FAIR: Join us Thursday, June 30, at 6:30 PM in the Sacred Heart Hall for our second planning meeting. Volunteers who last attended offered contributions such as homemade sewn, knitted, and quilted items; accessories for men and women; treasures from grandma's attic; Christmas table decorations; and delicious food. We are seeking additional volunteers to contribute items or ideas to grow this fun event for our parish. Please contact Evelyn Pierce at (207) 447-1086.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

The Fire of God's Love

All of you reading this column will have heard at some point that God loves you. Some of you will have heard it more than you'd care to. There is a way in which this phrase is used that makes God sound like an oversized Barney the Purple Dinosaur in the sky. To those with that concern, I sympathize. However, until you understand that God loves you (and understand this properly), much of the Christian life won't make much sense.

Why is that? To a non-believer there are aspects of the Christian life that seem silly at best. Why believe whatever God tells you? You would never put that level of trust in a human being, so why do it with God? Why are there people who are so eager to sacrifice their time, their comfort or even their lives for God? Isn't religion all about helping you find fulfillment? Why then this emphasis on sacrifice? And what makes Christians think God is so great when all He does is make rules and judge them on it?

The answer? God loves me infinitely and I know that for a fact. Therefore, I can trust Him to tell me the truth and I can believe what He says. He's not trying to deceive me, He only wants my good. Because He loves me, I can trust that what He asks is for my true good and the good of my neighbor, even if it seems hard. Further, He loved me so much that He gave His life for me on the cross. He gave everything for love of me, and it is only natural that I should want to give everything for love of Him, even if it hurts. Sacrifices become a joy when done out of love.

In 1673, Jesus showed St. Margaret Mary His Heart. She reports that it was a veritable furnace, on fire with love for us. The love of God is not something sentimental or wimpy: it is a fire of love that burns so hot that it consumes Him, that drives Him to sacrifice everything for love of us, even to the point of dying on the cross. You'll notice that several of our catechetical programs follow this theme: Spark, Flame, FIRE. We did this for a reason. It is more than just a hope that our children will be zealous and on fire for the faith. We hope they too will come to know the fire that burns in the heart of Jesus for them and their hearts will be set ablaze by it. Once you know the fire of God's love, the Christian life will make sense, with all its sacrifices and seeming eccentricities.

TOTUS TUUS: Scarborough and Windham are hosting camps. Totus Tuus is a Catholic youth program for students in grades 1 through 12. The program is dedicated to teaching the Gospel and deepening love for the Church through catechesis, prayer, Christian witness, and the sacraments. The program's strong emphasis on devotion and love for Christ in the Eucharist and for Mary, Mother of the Church, leads participants to an exhilarating encounter with the timeless treasures of the Catholic Faith. Through age appropriate, dynamic, and faithful content presented each day, young people are motivated and equipped to live the radical call of the Gospel in today's world. Registration is now opened the following dates and locations. Visit <https://portlanddiocese.org/vocations/totustuus> to register.

- July 10-15: St. Maximilian Kolbe church, Scarborough
- July 24-29: Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, Windham
