Sharing God's Word ~ Through Pastoral Life and Ministry

WAYS TO PARTICIPATE: Through prayer and fasting, peaceful vigils, and community outreach, 40 Days for Life has inspired 1,000,000+ volunteers! Here's how to take part—Vigil location: Outside Maine Family Planning (43 Gabriel Dr.), Augusta, Maine from 8 am to 8 pm daily, sign up for prayer times by contacting Judy at ricejuice@twc.com or (207) 872-3558, or visit our website www.40daysforlife.com.

WOMEN'S ACTS RETREAT: A parishioner remembers the ACTS Retreat: "I thought I was doing pretty well in my relationship with God, but I got this little nudge inside me that I should try something different. With ACTS, I discovered new-found strength by focusing on that relationship with the support, example, and inspiration of other lay men in my community. These folks share many of my same challenges, doubts, and yearnings. There is tremendous comfort in that. ACTS was not what I expected but it was what I needed. My spiritual life has been re-invigorated." -TL

The Women's Retreat will be held Thursday evening, May 18, to Sunday morning, May 21, at a lakeside retreat center in Winthrop. Retreat cost is $175. Travel to retreat center and all meals are included. Cost should not be an obstacle for attendees; scholarship funds are available. Reserve your spot now—this Retreat will fill up! For more information and to register, visit <https://pothe.org/acts-retreat> or contact Cathy at camullaney@gmail.com.

PRAYER FOR OUR PRIESTS: Our priests need prayers to persevere in their vocation and to serve well. We invite you to say this prayer by St. John Vianney.

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary His Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

I Didn't Do It, But...

So let's dive into some examples of all those times you might say, "I'm not the one who committed the sin, but..."

Example 1: being accessory by provocation. Think back to what it was like being a kid. Being good was hard enough, but having to deal with goody goodies made it even harder. Imagine that there was a kid in your class that refused to use bad language. For some reason, sin loves company so you and friends make fun of him for it until eventually he's swearing like a sailor. If the teacher reprimands you when the formerly clean mouthed Billy let's a few choice words fly, you might retort, "Well I wasn't the one who swore." But you know that you had a role in it. You helped him fall into sin by provoking him to do it.

Example 2: being accessory by praise or flattery. Fast forward a few years to high school and college and I think you'll find this was pretty common. A guy does something with his girlfriend that would make his grandmother faint if she knew about it and he's getting high fives for his behavior all around the locker room. Or someone is given high praise on their ability to still walk after a few too many diet Pepsis. Or pranks and mischief that do a lot of damage get acclaimed as one of the greatest events in school history. In all these cases, you might not have been the one to make grandma faint, or drink the diet Pepsis, or turn the school hall into a slip and slide, but in praising it, you share responsibility. Praising something that is wrong makes you an accessory to it.

Example 3: by facilitating the evil done. Imagine you're an arms dealer and the Mafia shows up at your door wanting to buy weapons. If you know it's the Mafia and you know how they intend to use those weapons, you can't later plead that what they do with the weapons is their business. You knowingly had a role in facilitating their crimes and share in the responsibility. This is why Catholics have limits on what kinds of causes they can contribute to and what kinds of activities they can participate in. For instance, you might only be the caterer for the annual KKK banquet (if there's such a thing), but by facilitating their activities you share in responsibility for their behavior even though you yourself weren't the one burning crosses. By helping someone sin, we share in the sin ourselves.

Example 4: being accessory by silence. In saying nothing in the face of wrong doing, we share some responsibility. This is one of the most common ways of being accessory and so needs some comment. To be continued next week.

– Joe Moreshead
