WOMEN'S ACTS RETREAT: A parishioner remembers her experience— "In the fall of 2016, I was invited to attend an ACTS retreat. Through that retreat, God's love and mercy filled my heart and soul. I became aware of the power and grace of God in my life and the meaning of Christ's suffering, death, and Resurrection. This all led to a deepening of my faith, and I began developing a more intimate relationship with Our Lord." The Women's Retreat will be held Thursday evening, May 18, to Sunday morning, May 21, at a beautiful lakeside retreat center in Winthrop. Retreat cost is $175. Travel to retreat center and all meals are included. Cost should not be an obstacle for attendees; scholarship funds are available. Reserve your spot now—this Retreat will fill up! For more information and to register, visit <https://pothe.org/acts-retreat> or contact Cathy at camullaney@gmail.com.

RETURN RICE BOWLS: Did you remember to turn in your Rice Bowls? Please bring them with you to Mass next week so that we can complete our donation. Thank you!

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION A Meditation on the Resurrection

by Augustine Maria Ilg

Go in spirit to our Lord's Sepulcher. It is early in the morning; a hallowed silence rests on all around. The Sepulcher wherein the body of Jesus reposes is securely closed by the heavy stone; it is guarded by soldiers who perhaps at the dawn of this the third day after His death recall with derision the prediction of the crucified One that He would rise again on the third day. That day has come now, but no sign of any change appears; the Sepulcher remains just the same as it was yesterday and the day before, undisturbed, unaltered. Externally all is at rest, but behind the stone, within the tomb, the repose is not unbroken.

Consider that our Lord's soul has just quitted Limbo, and accompanied by the holy patriarchs, has returned to the Sepulcher, to be reunited to the Sacred Remains deposited there. There the Body lies, wrapped in linen cloths, rigid and lifeless. What, think you, must the feelings of those devout patriarchs have been when they saw the price at which their redemption was purchased, when they gazed upon the dead Body of our Lord, when they beheld it to be one vast wound, crimsoned with blood, marked with five large, gaping wounds, on hands and feet and side! Yet while they gazed in sorrow on the mournful sight the Sacred Body of Christ presented, all was speedily to be changed, and a wondrous and joyful transition to take place.

Consider the complete transformation our Lord's Body underwent when the soul was reunited to it. All the disfigurement, all the stains and scars vanished in an instant; the defaced and mangled Body is suddenly clothed with light and shines with greater brilliance than when transfigured on Tabor. Rigid and motionless a moment before, it suddenly becomes translucent, subtle, ethereal, endowed with immortality and with celestial splendor. The sacred wounds have not however disappeared; nay, on our Lord's glorified Body they shine like stars and sparkle like precious stones, and the risen Savior will ever retain them as a perpetual memorial of the redemption He accomplished.

Consider in what manner our Lord rose from the grave. Like a lightning-flash He penetrated the rock, the earth quaked, an angel descended like a flash of light from Heaven above and rolled the stone that closed the Sepulcher to one side. The watchmen were struck with terror and became as dead men; they lay on the ground stupefied, dazzled by the brilliant light that streamed out of the Sepulcher. Unseen by men, the celestial cohorts hovered around the risen Christ... Rejoice with them, my soul; let your alleluia rise up to Heaven, resounding out of the depths of a heart overflowing with joy and gladness; and let this day be nothing else but one long canticle of pious, joyous praise and thanksgiving to the glory of Him Who on the third day rose again from the dead.

SAVE THE DATES!

VACATION BIBLE CAMP: Vacation Bible will take place July 17-21 at St. Gregory the Great, 9 am to noon. (Please note, this is a change from previous years in which VBC was held the fourth week of July.) The theme this year will be on the Mass. To register go to <https://pothe.org/vacation-bible-camp>.

TOTUS TUUS IN WINDHAM & SCARBOROUGH: Totus Tuus dates have been announced. RETREAT FOR HOPE, HEALING AFTER ABORTION: Rachel's Vineyard retreats aim to offer solace, peace, and inner healing to any individual connected to an abortion, regardless of the role they played. The next Rachel's Vineyard retreat in Maine will be held on April 14-16 in southern Maine starting on Friday at 5 pm and concluding on Divine Mercy Sunday at 1:30 pm. The weekend will include Scripture meditations, the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a memorial service, Mass, and sharing with others personally affected by abortion. To talk about attending a retreat, please leave a confidential message at (207) 321-7897; email projectrachel@portlanddiocese.org; or submit a confidential online form at www.portlanddiocese.org/form/contact-project-rachel.
