Sharing God's Word ~ Through Pastoral Life and Ministry

WELCOME, CHIP!: Some of you might recognize our newest team member. Please welcome Paul "Chip" Metevier as our new Facilities Maintenance Technician. Chip retired after 40 years in the insurance business assessing and managing property damage claims. Chip raised four children, has five grandchildren, and has been a parishioner since 1985, volunteering on the grounds particularly with masonry work. He is looking forward to serving POTHE and we are excited to have him working with us!

FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY: The Please join us in person or via livestream for a solemn celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday on Sunday, April 16, at Holy Martyrs Church in Falmouth. Confessions will be heard beginning at 2:00 pm and throughout the service. At 3:00 pm Eucharistic Adoration will begin during which there will be the Veneration of the Divine Mercy image, reading from St. Faustina's diary, the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, meditation, and litanies of the Sacred Heart and Divine Mercy. The service will conclude by 5:00 pm with Benediction.

WHAT IS AN ACTS RETREAT?: An ACTS Retreat is a 3-day, 3-night, retreat offering parishioners the chance to experience the love of Jesus Christ in a profound way. ACTS Retreats are given by our own parishioners for fellow parishioners, and build Christian community within the parish. The weekend is an opportunity to strengthen your faith, renew yourself spiritually, and create strong friendships. ACTS stands for: Adoration and prayer; Community, awareness of one's identity as a member of the Body of Christ; Theology, encouraging study of our faith and God's Word; and promoting the virtue of Service to Our Lord and one another. ACTS Ministry is active at parishes across Maine; this retreat is a collaboration between POTHE and Our Lady of Hope Parish in Portland. Our Women's Retreat will be held Thursday evening, May 18 to Sunday morning, May 21, at a lakeside retreat center in Winthrop. Retreat cost is $175; scholarship funds are available. Travel to retreat and all meals are included. For more information and to register, visit <https://pothe.org/acts-retreat>, contact Cathy at camullaney@gmail.com, or contact the POTHE office, (207) 847-6890.

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

Swimming and the Spiritual Life: Obedience

Some of you know that I grew up in competitive swimming. I swam for Coastal Maine Aquatics year-round from age eight to eighteen and for Cheverus High School during the school season. When I graduated and went to college, I chose not to swim and volunteered coaching a public high school team instead. For a good fifteen years, I was in the pool or on the deck two hours a day, five to six days a week, eleven months out of the year. Those of you familiar with the effects of chlorine will understand the chemical glow and the particular fragrance that comes with that amount of pool time.

Suffice to say that swimming was an important part of my life. There were life lessons I learned from my time in the sport. Some of those life lessons carried over into my spiritual life. Over the next few weeks, I'd like to share some of those with you.

First lesson: it's amazing how much progress you can make by just doing what you're told.

When I started out in the pool, I was no instant prodigy. Hand/foot/head to eye coordination didn't come naturally to me. Besides, I had a great love for food (still do, honestly) and this gave me a portly stature for an eight year old that didn't work to my competitive advantage. By contrast, some of my teammates were much more invested in the sport than myself. They would work out outside practice. They would even lay off the sweets during swim meets. Unsurprisingly, my more ambitious teammates had the faster times.

The one thing I had going for me (at least at that point in my swim career) was that I did what I was told. In the world of swimming, there are ways to cut corners; for instance, making a U-turn in your lane when your coach isn't looking, or pulling on the lane line, or deciding you have a cramp when you're really just tired. I generally avoided those options and just did the sets as my coach asked me to. It took three years of plugging along like that, but around age eleven, I started seeing the fruit. My times dropped fast; I went from being in the middle of the pack to the front and even got a few age group records. This didn't come from going above and beyond; it was the fruit of just doing what I was supposed to be doing.

The same is true of the spiritual life. It is easy to look at the lives of the saints and think that we have to aim at heroics in order to be holy. In fact, just doing what God tells you will carry you far. Avoid sin, attend Mass, abstain from meat on Fridays, pray every day, and resolve to do God's will when it becomes known to you. It doesn't seem like much, but if you hold to that routine, you'll see the fruit in time.

—Joe Moreshead

To register for either program, go to <https://www.registertotustuusme.org/>.
