2023 CATHOLIC APPEAL PROGRESS REPORT: As of Week 2 of the Catholic Appeal 2023 our parish raised 17% of our goal. We are awaiting updated numbers and expect to be able to report an update next week. To contribute securely online or to read more about the programs and services the Appeal funds, please visit: <https://portlanddiocese.org/giving/make-gift>.

FOOD FOR FAMILIES SPONSORED BY THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS:

The Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a parish-wide food drive on the Weekend of June 24-25. They will be accepting donations of non-perishable food items which will be distributed to food pantries in each of the towns of our parish. Many families in Maine struggle with hardship and are unable to provide themselves with food. In fact, Maine ranks ninth in the nation for food insecurity. Please help the Knights of Columbus redress this problem by making donations to needy families in your local community!

FR. RALE PILGRIMAGE 2023: Joe Moreshead will once again lead the annual Fr. Sebastian Rale pilgrimage on Saturday, August 12 at 9:30 am at St. Sebastian Church in Madison, Maine. Fr. Rale was a Jesuit missionary who was pastor of the Norridgewock tribe in Maine for 30 years, until he was struck down in 1724 by an English militia. The day includes reflections on Fr. Rale's life and a procession on the grounds of the old mission to the place of his death. FMI contact Joe Moreshead at pothe.faithformation@portlanddiocese.org

CONCERT WITH CHRIS BRUNELLE: On August 20, 2023, at 6pm, guitarist and singer Chris Brunelle will offer a concert at St. Jude church in Freeport. This will be an evening of community singing, performance, and storytelling about Chris's lifelong journey in parish music ministry and beyond. The evening is free, but a freewill offering is encouraged. Chris Brunelle is an accomplished guitarist with a voice that is beautiful in its simplicity and warmth.

This combination of talent and heart has led to his success in Catholic music ministry. Chris began his career playing guitar at his neighborhood church in fourth grade, and was leading a parish choir by the time he was 16 years old. He is currently the music director at his home parish, Holy Family Catholic Church in Portland, Oregon, a role he has held for 29 years. Having helped lead music at many other local churches, including St. Mary's Cathedral in Portland, Chris has become a well-known and respected leader in music ministry in the Portland, Oregon area and now throughout the world as the result of his YouTube channel.

VACATION BIBLE CAMP: Vacation Bible Camp will take place July 17-21 at St. Gregory the Great, 9 am to noon. (Please note, this is a change from previous years in which VBC was held the fourth week of July.) The theme this year will be on the Mass. CatChat writes, "Kids will develop a new appreciation for the Catholic Mass and will deepen their love for Jesus in the Eucharist through faith teachings, catchy music, fun games, crafts, and more." To register go to <https://pothe.org/vacationbible-camp>.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE FOR ST. JOSEMARIA ESCRIVA: There will be a Mass commemorating St. Josemaria Escriva, the founder of Opus Dei, at Holy Martyrs Church on Wednesday, June 28 at 6:00 pm. Confession will be available from 5:00 - 5:45 pm. All are welcome!

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

The Importance of the Gut Check

Last week we talked about the importance of checking your work and not getting caught up in abstract ideas. This week I promised to discuss a particular case of this.

During my junior year at Fordham, I had a unique opportunity to attend a pro-life/pro-choice conference at Princeton University. Princeton is home to a notable philosopher named Dr. Peter Singer. Dr. Singer was a brilliant man, but also a clear example of how sometimes our intellects can lead us into territory that our common sense tells us is wrong.

During the conference, Dr. Singer spoke for the pro-choice position but what he had to say horrified even the pro-choice side. He held that logically it was permissible to "abort" children up until the age of two. You might expect that a man who advocated infanticide would be angry, mad, or consumed by evil passions. He was none of those things. He had simply followed a few ideas to their conclusion. Dr. Singer believed that there was no significant difference between human beings and animals other than their degree of intelligence. A dolphin was sufficiently intelligent to merit dignified treatment. A two year old human being was not. Thus you could morally kill cabbages, sheep, and toddlers, but not dolphins, chimpanzees and forty year olds.

While there was something admirable about the willingness of Dr. Singer to own the logical consequences of his own position, there was something disturbing about it as well. Most people when hearing Dr. Singer advocate infanticide got a little queasy. Some people would write this queasiness off as the results of social conditioning that we just have to get over. On the contrary, such queasiness is there for a reason. We call it natural law.

When God created human beings, he wired human nature in a very particular way. When we live according to our nature, we thrive. When we violate the natural law, our nature rebels, things feel off, and we shrivel up as human beings. Our intellect can lead us to imagine all kinds of logical possibilities, but when we hit a conclusion that our gut tells us is wrong, we should pay attention. As admirable as it is to be logical, our gut reaction is a good test that we would do well not to ignore.

—Joe Moreshead

If you are interested in helping, please contact Joe at pothe.faithformation@portlanddiocese.org.
