Sharing God's Word ~ Through Pastoral Life and Ministry

CONCERT WITH CHRIS BRUNELLE: On August 20, 2023, at 6 pm, guitarist and singer Chris Brunelle will offer a concert at St. Jude church in Freeport. This will be an evening of community singing, performance, and storytelling about Chris's lifelong journey in parish music ministry and beyond. The evening is free, but a freewill offering is encouraged. Chris Brunelle is an accomplished guitarist with a voice that is beautiful in its simplicity and warmth. This combination of talent and heart has led to his success in Catholic music ministry. Chris began his career playing guitar at his neighborhood church in fourth grade, and was leading a parish choir by the time he was 16 years old. He is currently the music director at his home parish, Holy Family Catholic Church in Portland, Oregon, a role he has held for 29 years. Having helped lead music at many other local churches, including St. Mary's Cathedral in Portland, Chris has become a well-known and respected leader in music ministry in the Portland, Oregon area and now throughout the world as the result of his YouTube channel.

VACATION BIBLE CAMP: Vacation Bible Camp will take place July 17-21 at St. Gregory the Great, 9 am to noon. (Please note, this is a change from previous years in which VBC was held the fourth week of July.) The theme this year will be on the Mass. CatChat writes, "Kids will develop a new appreciation for the Catholic Mass and will deepen their love for Jesus in the Eucharist through faith teachings, catchy music, fun games, crafts, and more." To register go to <https://pothe.org/vacationbible-camp>.

SECURITY SYSTEM FOB PICKUP! If you submitted a request to receive a key fob for accessing parish facilities for ministries or volunteer work, your key fobs are ready for pick up beginning July 10 in our office during normal business hours, Monday through Thursday from 9 am to 4 pm. If you are unable to pick up your fob during regular business hours, please call Joyce Hale at (207) 847-6890 or email pothe@portlanddiocese.org to make other arrangements. The old system will be disabled beginning August 1. ## FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

Some Final Tips for Engaging in a Discussion

With our series on engaging discussion coming to a close, I wanted to conclude with a few last tips.

First, if people are willing to be generous to you in a discussion, be generous to them in return. Seizing on petty points can stunt a conversation on both sides. The pleasant back and forth conversations require a sort of mutual agreement to disarmament. If you let your guard down and interpret what your opponent says as said from good will, he can do the same for you. Both of you are then free to consider each other's positions without fear that your opponent would seize the opportunity to force you to make concessions. That freedom to pursue mutual understanding can be very good and sometimes lead people to change their minds. Just remember that not every conversation is like that; it requires special conditions that cannot always be there.

Second, it is okay to insist on some ground rules; doing so is not a sign of thin skin. If the person you are talking with is not interested in understanding your position or representing it fairly, the discussion is not worth it. Both parties must agree to be civil and honest; if that's not possible, the conversation should not be had.

Third, remember a discussion can be worth having even if you know your opponent will not be convinced. Political candidates know that in a public debate they're not going to convince each other, but that was never the point. They are trying to show to the general public that their position is reasonable. If they refused to engage in the discussion at all, it casts doubt on how sound their position really is. The same is true of us. It is worth speaking up in public settings and responding to our opponents if for no other reason than showing other people that our opponents can be responded to.

Fourth, remember that arguments are not won in days but in months and years. It is unusual for people to admit they are wrong in the moment. Instead, they tend to stew on points that are bothering them for weeks and months, trying to think up responses. It might take years for them to grant that a point you raised was insurmountable and that they were wrong. Do not be discouraged if they do not make such an admission in the moment.

Fifth, do not be discouraged if you cannot field every point your opponent raises. We are human, it takes time for us to think and gather evidence. Years down the road you might find the answer to a point your opponent raised. Just because you cannot find it in the middle of the discussion does not mean the answer does not exist.

Lastly, remember that no matter what direction your discussion goes, God is always right. Human reasoning is useful, but it is limited and fallible. God knows everything and can neither deceive nor be deceived, so have confidence that what God has said is true, regardless of whether you were able to persuade someone else of it or not.

—Joe Moreshead

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING (NFP) AWARENESS

WEEK : The week of July 23-28 will feature daily events in the evening that will cover the topic of natural family planning. There will be a live talk with Professor Janet Smith, an informational session with a local NFP teacher, a book club, a men's night, a parents night out and more! NFP is a safe, effective way to help a couple determine when marital intercourse will result in pregnancy. Our culture believes in the myth that the pill is one of the greatest inventions of the twentieth century. Overwhelming evidence shows that contraception has undermined marriage by increasing unwed pregnancy, recourse to abortion, and divorce. NFP, however, allows for the true expression, renewal, and deepening of the couple's commitment to their marriage vows. To see further details and reserve your spot, please visit www.pothe.org/nfp
