SECOND COLLECTION OCTOBER 21/22—WORLD MISSION SUNDAY:

A special collection will be taken up at churches around the globe on World Mission Sunday. The money will be used to support local church communities in more than 1,100 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Europe, Latin America, and the Pacific Islands. The collection is essential in helping newly established or poor dioceses become self-sufficient. More information on World Mission Sunday, including links to resources, may be found at www.portlanddiocese.org/world-mission-sunday.

2023 CATHOLIC APPEAL PROGRESS REPORT:

As of Week 21 of the Catholic Appeal 2023, our parish raised 83% of our goal. Thank you to those who have supported our Diocesan Appeal. To contribute securely online, please visit:

The ACTS Men's Retreat will be held Thursday evening, November 16, to Sunday morning, November 19, at the lakeside retreat center in Winthrop. Retreat cost is $180. Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

THE CONVERSION OF JOSEPH CHIWATENHWA

The Holy Martyrs of North America labored for the salvation of the Huron people. Below is an account by a contemporary of the martyrs, Fr. Paul Le Jeune, of one of the first Christian converts among the Hurons, Joseph Chiwatenhwa. The letter was written in 1638.

His [Joseph Chiwatenhwa's] love for God is so sincere that we are charmed when we sometimes hear him speaking to God in his prayers (for we still have him pray aloud). He offers them with sentiments that he can have learned only from the Holy Ghost. He does not know exactly what expressions to use, in order to offer his thanks to him for having given him the faith. He prays every day for all his Nation, with so abundant grace that one must be of bronze not to be moved thereat.

From day to day he himself finds new motives for performing acts of contrition, usually concluding thus, "Yes, my good God, I will honor You all my life, and will love You with all my heart!" He assured us one day that the thoughts of Heaven and of the goodness of God touched his heart more than those of Hell gave him fear.

At another time, he was very much taken aback, when he had failed to attend Mass one Sunday; he said to us very distractedly, "How now! Have I really committed a grievous sin? I do not think so, for you have not yet told me of this sin;" and we answered him, "Then it is only thy ignorance that excuses thee." When we went to see him towards evening, we found him quite thoughtful. "Ah, my Brothers," said he, "I made a mistake this morning, but I am asking God's pardon for it with all my heart."

In the explanation of the holy Sacrament of Penance, he was greatly consoled by the goodness of God, which has left us so easy and so efficacious a means of returning to His grace.

He had formed a party to go some leagues from here, to assist one of his nephews in some work, where he was going all the more willingly (as he said) since Our Lord had commanded us to love one another; but having learned that the next day was the true day (it is thus we express Sunday in their language), he decided to defer it until another day. "It is quite enough," said he, "to have committed the first fault, without being guilty of a second one. If anyone asks me the reason for my delay, I am very willing that he should know that I love God, and that I esteem his holy Ordinances."

In a word, his sole recreation is to converse about the things of God, which enables us to make great progress in the language, for he pronounces distinctly and uses good words.
