Called to Discipleship ~ Through Stewardship and Service

SECOND COLLECTIONS

DECEMBER 9/10—RETIRED RELIGIOUS FUND: The fund benefits over 30,000 elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. Traditionally, Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for small stipends that did not include retirement benefits. Today, hundreds of religious communities lack sufficient retirement savings. Communities utilize these funds to bolster retirement savings and subsidize expenses, such as prescription medications and nursing care; promote collaborative care facilities; cultivate strategic partnerships with providers of healthcare; and generate numerous cost-saving measures.

HAITI DOOR COLLECTION DECEMBER 16/17: Please continue to support our sister parish in Haiti with your prayers and generous financial support.

BOY SCOUTS TROOP 12 FUNDRAISER: Are you looking for a practical gift or stocking stuffer for Christmas? Between Thanksgiving and New Year's, Boy Scouts from Troop 12 will be selling VIP Coupon Books after Mass. The books include 3 free oil changes, 1 tire rotation, a free State Inspection and more! Total savings add up to $300! Coupon Books cost just $30 each and are good to use starting January 2, 2024.

EUCCHARISTIC GUARDIANS: We are fortunate to be able to offer hours of Eucharistic Adoration at Holy Martyrs and we would like to continue offering this opportunity to our parishioners. We need your help! We need at least two Guardians per hour to commit to keeping watch with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Can you keep watch one hour a week at Holy Martyrs? Eucharistic Adoration is available from 12 pm – 8 pm each Monday except holidays. FMI: Tracy, tracywinkeler@gmail.com.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREES: Our Christmas Giving Trees have returned!

HOLY MARTYRS—Long Creek Youth Development Center has been the beneficiary of the Holy Martyrs Giving Tree for numerous years. While the resident population of Long Creek has decreased significantly, they continue to support numerous youth. This year we again include support to refugees in the care of Catholic Charities. Envelopes will be found on the Giving Tree requesting gift cards. Please mark your card with the amount and put your donation in the envelope and return in the collection or to the office by December 16. Be sure the amount of the card is written on the card. The refugees and youth will be most thankful! FMI: Carol (207) 781-4852, Fredriks@maine.rr.com

We will be collecting food for a blessed Christmas dinner and to provide pantry supplies for the cold winter months. We will be collecting food at Holy Martyrs through December and delivering December 20. FMI: Danielle, dtracy1@maine.rr.com.

ST. JUDE—will be participating with the Holiday Helpline at Freeport Community Services. The Giving Tree with Christmas gift tags will be up by Sunday, December 3. Gifts should be returned by Sunday, December 17. Donations of cash and gift cards are also welcomed. As always, we appreciate the generosity of our parishioners. FMI: Chris at (207) 712-8127

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT—In collaboration with Caring Community, the Giving Tree will be up starting December 2. Tags request gifts/gift cards for families in need in the Gray and New Gloucester areas. All gifts/gift cards must be returned to church by Sunday, December 17. FMI: Sherry (207) 847-6890.

SACRED HEART—The Giving Tree will be up the weekend of December 2/3 with tags for: Immigrant/asylum-seeking families, retired sisters, and retired veterans at Togus Hospital. The Knights will be helping to support the wall calendar gifts for the veterans. The last day to bring gifts will be Sunday, December 17. Please include the tag with the wrapped gift to Sacred Heart. Donations of cash or gift cards are always welcomed. FMI: Cathy, catherine.maria.martin@gmail.com.

FRIENDSHIP HOUSE: Thank you! We had a very good response to our recent request for donations for the Friendship House. Several people brought ample main dishes: chicken cacciatore, tacos and fixings for a group, and a big ham with rolls and mustard. Other contributions for the men were a frozen lasagna, cereal, bologna, and farmers' market squash, apples, lettuce, tomatoes, and green peppers. Just as welcome were the men's toiletries and paper products. They were extremely grateful!

TRAINING FOR COMMUNION TO THE HOMEBOUND:

Parishioners unable to attend Mass frequently ask that Holy Communion be brought to them. The parish relies on generous volunteers to make these visits. Veterans and new volunteers are asked to attend a training on bringing Communion to the homebound this December. Please contact pothe.faithformation@portlanddiocese.org to RSVP for one of the followings dates:

Saturday, December 16, 5-6 pm, Sacred Heart

Sunday, December 17, 4:30-5:30 pm, Holy Martyrs

RECOLLECTION WITH OPUS DEI : Opus Dei is a personal

Prelature of the Catholic Church, which endeavors to help people find God in their everyday lives. Groups are separated by men and women with each group meeting on the fourth Wednesday of each month. The groups will meet this Wednesday, December 13 at Holy Martyrs. For more information, go to opusdei.org. Opus Dei is part of the Catholic Church. The name is Latin for "Work of God." Opus Dei's mission is to spread the Christian message that every person is called to holiness and that every honest work can be sanctified.

MORNING OF RECOLLECTION FOR WOMEN: The morning schedule runs from 10 am to 12:30 pm and includes a meditation by a priest, a talk given by a lay member on topics relating to the Christian life, and time for silent prayer. There will also be an opportunity for Confession/Spiritual Direction beginning at 9:30 am. Holy Mass begins at 11:30 am. Babysitting is available.

EVENING OF RECOLLECTION FOR MEN: The evening schedule runs from 6 to 7:45 pm and includes opportunities for Confession, a talk by a layman on Christian virtue, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a meditation guided by a priest of Opus Dei, time for silent prayer, Adoration, and Benediction. Confession is available from 5:15-6:00 pm. Snacks and refreshments will follow in the hall.

PRAYER SHAWL GROUP: The POTHE Prayer Shawl Knitters have been busy knitting and crocheting. Why a prayer shawl? They are used to bring comfort to those undergoing medical procedures, comfort after a loss, birthing, illness and recovery, and other situations of stress or discomfort. Many prayers and blessings are prayed into every stitch. There is no cost to giving or receiving a prayer shawl. If you know of someone in need of a prayer shawl, FMI: Bonnie (207) 8460-0817, celtic20@icloud.com. We deliver!

PRAYER SHAWL RECIPIENT SHARES HER EXPERIENCE: I will cherish having these prayers shawls to connect with my mother-in-law in these final days. Bless you for this gift of love. I don't always get a chance to read through the entire POTHE bulletin, but I did today and the prayer shawls just jumped out to me. Those shawls are a blessing made by loving hands. ~Meghan

FROM OUR FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

REFLECTIONS ON THE MONASTERY OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD (PART 2)

A church is the house of God. Its furnishings are meant first to honor Him, and second raise the minds and hearts of those who enter that church towards the King who dwells there. The monastery communicated both of those things in ways I had never seen before.

When you entered the monastery, the first thing you saw was the turntable. The turntable and the grille were the two visible reminders of the cloistered life that the Sisters Adorers of the Precious Blood led. When attending Mass, the Sisters were present, but they attended Mass from their chapel, looking through a barred window such that the congregation could not see them. When you went to pick up a Mass card from the monastery, you put your money on the turntable and turned it. The Sister would then place the card on the table and turn it back. You never interacted face to face. These were visible reminders that God comes first. The Sisters had chosen to make Him their absolute priority and in doing so, to leave behind everything and everyone but Him.

With that reminder, you entered the chapel. The altar was always beautifully furnished. The tabernacle was always beautifully veiled and (if I'm not mistaken) the veils were handmade by the Sisters. Votive candles were kept burning for Him on the reredos. Outside of Mass, there was a frontal draped along the altar that said, "Glory to the Blood of Jesus!" And of course, the statue of the Infant of Prague (Christ the child King) was always dressed in regal finery with colors corresponding to the season. Our Lord was honored in that chapel.

The artwork around you was a reminder to return love for love to Our Lord, as Mother Catherine Aurelie (their foundress) used to say. At the front of the chapel was a statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, His heart radiating light and on fire with love for us. Next to the altar was a window showing the agony of Our Lord in the Garden, and at the back of the chapel was a large crucifix in which Our Lord was shown still alive, and in great pain. It was a reminder that on the Cross Our Lord sacrificed everything for love of us. It was a love that burned so fiercely that it consumed Him. Contemplate all He suffered for our sins and you'll find that it's true. In the face of such love, what should be our response? We should return love for love, and love and honor Him since He has so loved and suffered for us.

This brings me to the windows. It is notable that three of the saints depicted in those stained glass windows bore the stigmata: St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. When we see that Our Lord gave all for love of us, how can we not want to give all for love of Him, even to the point of suffering, even when it costs us? The whole chapel pointed to the love Our Lord bore for us on the Cross and cried out, "Glory to the Blood of Jesus!"

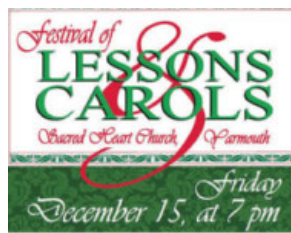

—Joe Moreshead

ADVENT

PARISHWIDE READ: This year, our parishwide Advent reading selection is titled, Our Lady of Fatima by Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle. Books can be found at all of our churches. Pick one up for your household to read during this season of Advent.

LESSONS AND CAROLS: Join us for an uplifting Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols befitting the Advent season. We listen to nine brief Scripture lessons, which recount Salvation history. Our Parish choirs and Scholas will lead the singing of a carol or hymn highlighting each lesson's message. Friday, December 15 at 7 pm at Sacred Heart.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT: This year's Christmas pageant will be held at St. Gregory the Great on December 17 at 10 am. Plan to come watch this adorable tradition! Reception to follow. If you would like to join, please email Kathy at kgeorge2@maine.rr.com.

ADDITIONAL HOURS FOR CONFESSION: During the third week of Advent, POTHE will offer additional hours for Confession to allow parishioners to continue preparing for Christmas. Confessions will begin at 6 pm. Check the schedule below for the location each night.
