PARISH OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

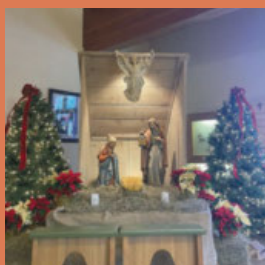

Holy Martyrs | St. Jude | St. Gregory the Great | Sacred Heart

DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS!

Thank you to all of our decorators who quickly and beautifully changed the décor from Advent to Christmas in a matter of a few short hours!

Our churches look beautiful because of dedicated volunteers. Have you considered volunteering for this or other work in our parish? Take a look at our Time and Talent brochure to read about our various ministries and discover where you can make a difference!

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

ROAD FOR HOPE 2023 THANK YOU: Back in August, Parish of the Holy Eucharist hosted about 40 college students and support personnel as they journeyed by foot from Lewiston to St. Anselm College in Manchester New Hampshire. Each year a group of students makes the trek to raise money for charities in Maine and New Hampshire. Some of these charities include Good Shepherd Food Bank and Candia Drug Awareness in NH. The walk began in 1998 as an idea from a student to travel to college differently. That student is now Fr. Seamus Griesbach, Rector of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Portland. The Lewiston Sun Journal published an article about the Road for Hope in August of 2022. Read more about the its mission and founders at www.sunjournal.com. Search "road for hope."

We received a Thank You, note from them in the mail recently. Here is what the note said:

Dear St. Gregory's,

Thank you so much for hosting Road for Hope and providing us with dinner and of course, the lake! After a long first day, walkers love to swim in the lake, so we were so grateful for this! Our program would not be possible without overnight sites and meal sponsors like you, so your generosity is greatly appreciated! Hope to see you next year.

Sincerely,
 RFH 2023 Leaders

Donations can be dropped off in the blue bins in the hallway between the narthex and hall at Holy Martyrs or in the back of Sacred Heart. Thank you for your help! FMI, contact Evelyn at (207) 447-1086.

PRAYER FOR OUR PRIESTS: Our priests need prayers to persevere in their vocation and to serve well. We invite you to say this prayer by St. John Vianney:

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after Your own heart.

May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of Your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to Your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary His Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

BAPTISM

As a director of Faith Formation, Baptism is a tricky Sacrament to explain. On the one hand, baptism is a necessary precondition for entering heaven. "Unless you are born again of water and the Spirit, you cannot enter the kingdom of heaven. (John 3:5)" Without the grace of Baptism, without the forgiveness of original sin and the marking of your soul as belonging to Christ and His Church, heaven is not attainable.

Given that, you would think that we would start showing up at every public pool in the state and pronouncing the Trinitarian formula over unsuspecting swimmers. But it's not that simple. Baptism comes with a commitment and that requires a certain degree of preparation; for adults that comes in the form of RCIA. For children, that comes with a commitment on the part of their parents and godparents to raise them in the faith and get them properly catechized as they grow older.

While Baptism may be a necessary precondition for entering heaven, it is not a guarantee. Once we are baptized we have to persevere in living the Christian life in order to attain heaven. If we do not, the mark of Baptism may be on our souls, but it would be all for naught. Baptism is like signing up for a road race. Once you are baptized, you have your bib and you're running the race. Now you have a shot at the prize, but to get it you have to finish the race. If no one tells you you're in a race or how to run it, you have the bib, but you won't attain the prize. That's why catechesis is so necessary.

Remember, heaven is a kingdom. There are those who can call it home, but citizenship comes with obligations. We are not born citizens of heaven, but of this world. If we want to be citizens of heaven, we have to renounce our allegiance to the ways of this world and pledge it to God, our true King. We have to pledge to be loyal to Him, to obey His laws, to fight under His banner. Baptism is that pledge and it marks us for life. If we persevere in faithful service to God, when we approach the gates of Heaven, we can hold out our Baptism like a passport and honestly declare, "I have served God my King faithfully and now I am coming home."

Between Baptism and heaven there are spiritual battles to be fought, temptations to be endured, commandments to be learned and taken to heart, and a great and generous King to be better known and loved. Baptism begins the race, but we must persevere in running it thereafter.

—Joe Moreshead
