27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"When He brought her to the man, the man said: 'This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken.' That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh." -Gn 2:22—24

UPCOMING SECOND COLLECTIONS

October 6—Catastrophe Assistance: Over the past several years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has called on parishes to conduct second collections in response to various natural disasters domestically and internationally. This has been a concrete and effective expression of solidarity of the Church in the United States with those suffering at home and abroad.

October 13—Haiti Door Collection: Check out our POTHE website with links to the Facebook Pages of our Sister Parish in Haiti! Visit: pothe.org/haiti.

2024 CATHOLIC APPEAL PROGRESS REPORT: Our Annual Diocesan Catholic Appeal, United in Hope, supports the ministries of our Church in Maine, which educate our youth and young adults, assist our parishes, comfort the sick, and bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to the people of God. For a full list of programming, please see the brochures in our churches. As of Week 19, your generosity has brought us to 87% of our goal. Can you help us reach 100%? FMI or to donate securely, visit portlanddiocese.org/giving.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE: If God were to ask, "What did you do about abortion?" ...how would you answer? Through prayer, fasting, and peaceful vigil you can be a light in the darkness and a witness to the sanctity of all human life. From September 25 to November 3, faithful believers will unite in Portland to pray for an end to abortion, to give hope to all those who find themselves in a crisis pregnancy, and to offer healing to those who have experienced abortion. Join us in prayer on the sidewalk 9 am-1 pm daily, Monday through Saturday, outside Planned Parenthood, 443 Congress Street in Portland. Sign up for a prayer shift: www.40daysforlife.com/portlandme, or contact (207) 613-5910, 40daysportland@gmail.com.

FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTIONS ON FAMILY CATECHESIS (FIRE), PART 2

SAVIO'S STORE

Continuing our series on FIRE, I'll begin with my favorite part: Savio's Store.

The genesis of Savio's Store is interesting. Early on in my time at Parish of the Holy Eucharist, we were getting calls from people who had old religious items that they didn't know what to do with. I was sympathetic to the problem from when my grandfather passed away; all the pictures and rosaries and statuary that my older relatives had accumulated had funneled to my grandfather and simply couldn't be assimilated by our remaining family once he passed. Fr. Cartwright suggested a solution: why don't we put out a call for religious goods to the parish to be donated to Faith Formation? This way we would have rosaries, medals, and statues that we could give to the children in our program.

The parish was extremely generous. People brought statues that had belonged to parents and grandparents and had been loved and treasured. Beautiful statues of Mary and Jesus (usually the Infant of Prague) were being dropped off at the office, along with used rosaries, books, and medals.

I wanted the next generation to be familiar with these devotions and treasure them the way they had been treasured by their former owners. I also knew that something simply given away is valued less than something worked for and chosen. So I decided to kill two birds with one stone: the religious goods would be prizes for memorizing prayers.

The prayers begin with the most basic sign of the Cross and Glory Be, until by the end the children are able to recite the Apostle's Creed and the prayer at the end of the rosary. As the children progress, the prizes they can choose grow bigger, starting with a prayer card and ending with a statue.

It's been one of the great joys of this job to be able to sit at Savio's Store behind the table, watching the children eye the sacramentals in front of them. Some are barely three years old and come up to the table to show me the Sign of the Cross they've been working on. Others know the rosary prayers by heart and are disappointed to learn that they have to learn the Acts of Faith, Hope, and Charity first before they can go on to recite the Hail Holy Queen for me. Some days I wonder if only a small group of children even notice the store, until a child I've never seen before approaches the table and recites a prayer they've been working on all year.

Sometimes it's hard to know what to say to God. In those dry moments, learning prayers by heart pays off in a big way. I'm so proud of all the work our children have put into learning their prayers and am looking forward to seeing what kind of progress they make in this coming year at FIRE.
