Pastor's Ponderosa ~ From Fr. Cartwright

CHRISTUS SURRÉXIT! - SURRÉXIT VERE, ALLELÚJA!
"Christ is risen" - "He is risen indeed. Alleluia!"

Our broken world needs Easter more than ever. St. Paul tells us that "If Christ be not raised from the dead, our faith is in vain." (1 Cor. 15:14). Our observance of Easter is not just a mere recollection of one of the central historical events of Christianity, it is a life-giving Sacrament and sign of hope that is realized in our lives every year, and every single Sunday.

Especially now, it is so important for us to hear and embrace these words of hope and joy: "To Him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in Him will receive forgiveness of sins through His name." He also grants life to us who live here and now, amid a war-torn world, filled with confusion, doubt, sickness, hatred, persecution, death, sorrow, and fear.

However, it is interesting to note that the Feast of Easter begins with sorrow, emptiness, doubt, confusion, and fear. The Evangelists, in their telling of the story of Easter, begin, not with the joy of the Resurrection, but with the sadness, despair, and the shattered expectations of an empty tomb. Why did John pause outside the tomb? Why did he wait for Peter to catch up to him and then allow Peter to go in first? Perhaps John was afraid of what he might find? If he went in and Jesus' body was there, it would have been the ultimate end to any sliver of hope. Jesus' promise to "rise in three days" would only be empty words instead of an empty tomb. Is it better to know or better not to know?

Or what if he went in, and Jesus' body was not there? What if there were no footprints or clues that someone else like the Romans or the temple authorities had stolen the body...then what? Now what? Where is He? What does this mean? Then that means nothing's the same any longer! Is it true? Did He really rise as He said He would? Can I really hope that the One I loved, the One I gave my life to follow and then watched die on the Cross, is alive as He said He would be? And what does all this mean for me? What do I do now? Is it better to know or better not to know?

And then the brash and bold Peter arrives and goes into the tomb. The one who gave up everything in his life to follow Jesus goes in and sees what John sees. The one who brazenly swore that he would never betray Jesus and then did so three times. Perhaps Peter has more to gain? Perhaps he needs to know that his thrice-voiced betrayal was not his last words to the person of Jesus. Perhaps he needs the promise of the Resurrection to be true more than John does. He needs to know.

First comes emptiness, then comes fulfillment. First comes sorrow, then comes joy. First comes doubt. Then comes knowledge. First comes death, then comes life. Easter begins with nothing and ends with everything!

When we think about it, isn't there a tiny reflection of the Easter story in each of our lives? Just as Easter begins with emptiness, so do our lives begin with emptiness. Before we take our first breath, we are called to leave the comfort of our mother's womb. And throughout our entire life, every time we take a step forward, we are called to empty ourselves and leave something behind. Before we make a commitment to our spouse in marriage, we are called to let go of our independence. Before we respond to a vocation call or make a career choice, we are called to let go of other equally attractive opportunities. At every step of life, to receive new life, we are called to empty ourselves in some way.

The same applies to our spiritual life. Emptiness is part of the human experience. Emptiness can bring emotional pain, yet at the same time, it can also be received as a spiritual gift.

We all need that emptiness within ourselves: that space that makes room for something new, that space that can be opened to God. Last night at Sacred Heart, we were privileged to witness those, who even during these extraordinary times in which we live, emptied themselves to make room for the living Christ, Who rises triumphantly from the tomb today.

They needed to know. Do you need to know? To those who are visiting us today, whether you are returning after some time away or attending for the first time in a while, know that you are deeply loved by God and are always welcome here. Know that the Church is your home. Know that no matter how long it has been, no matter where life has taken you, know that Christ is calling you back into His embrace. Perhaps you have been away because of doubt, hurt, or simply the busyness of life. Whatever the reason, know that the doors of this Parish, and more importantly, the Heart of Jesus, remain open to you. Know that He desires to walk with you, to heal your wounds, and to fill your life with His peace and purpose.

This Easter season is the perfect time to know. Return to the Sacraments, encounter Christ in the Eucharist, experience His mercy in Confession, and rediscover the joy of being part of a vibrant, growing, building, and faith-filled family. Know that you are not alone, your parish family is here to support you, encourage you, and journey with you in faith.

Our broken world needs Easter more than ever. Christ fills our spiritual emptiness with the knowledge that Resurrection brings, the knowledge of the promise of eternal life! My prayerful wish for each of us today on this glorious Easter day is that our hearts and souls be filled with the indescribable and incomparable joy and knowledge of Our Lord's Resurrection from the tomb. May this joy fill every emptiness within us, wipe away all pain and fear, conquer every doubt and temptation, and remain with us forever!

"Resurrexit sicut dixit, alleluia!" "He has risen as he said, Alleluia!"

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING—THANK YOU: In February, our Parish participated in the Souper Bowl of Caring. Through your donations and a $1200 contribution by our Social Justice and Peace Commission, POTHE gave $1000 each to six food pantries in our Parish area: Cumberland, Falmouth, Freeport, Gray, New Gloucester, and Yarmouth. We in turn received personalized Thank You letters from each of the pantries expressing their gratitude for your generosity and explaining that your gifts will help them meet the increasing needs of our neighbors.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING NEEDS: We are accepting spring clothing for men and women. Clothes must be clean and in good, usable condition. We especially need men's pants along with long-sleeved tops, jackets, sweatshirts, socks, shoes, and undergarments. ADULT CLOTHING ONLY. Thank you to all of our volunteers who support St. Vincent de Paul Mission. Our group leader is Fr. Brian Conley, SJ. The next meeting is Wednesday, April 30, from 6.30 pm to 8 pm (there will be snacks!). Please plan to join us—all adults are welcome! FMI: Peter, (207) 329-5889.

Do you play an instrument? Any brass players? FMI or to express interest, visit, pothe.org/sacredmusic.

VOLUNTEER WITH TED: Ted Walsh, who creates the posters of parish events for each of our parish churches, is seeking volunteers to assist with the assembly of them each week. Printing the posters commercially would be cost prohibitive (retail cost approximately $20 ea.). Ted is able to create them for well under $2 each; however, they require trimming and gluing four pages together to create the same effect as the full-size prints. Volunteers would use the tools pictured here (church provided) to accomplish the task. Full training will be provided and can be DONE AT HOME! If interested, email Ted at: tedretired2010@hotmail.com.

Called to Discipleship ~ Through Faith Formation

FROM OUR FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

HIS WORK HAS ONLY BEGUN

In 33 AD, Jesus Christ rose from the dead. Since that day He has been busy, searching for souls to lead back with Him to Heaven.

When you hear the stories of how Jesus appeared after His Resurrection to so many people, you realize that His work had not finished, but only begun. Those of you familiar with the Chronicles of Narnia will recognize this pattern of behavior in Aslan the Lion. He is not a tame lion, he appears when and where he wants, but it is always when souls are in need. Two-thousand years ago, Jesus died on the Cross and since His Resurrection He has been busy calling souls back to Himself by guiding them to the straight and narrow way.

One of the privileges of my job as Faith Formation director is that I get to see this in real time. You will hear stories about how historically Jesus Christ changed people's lives and caused miraculous conversions. Those stories appear in my inbox whenever someone fills out the "Become Catholic" form on our website.

It happens more than you would think. We had roughly 25 people contact us last year about becoming Catholic. What is even more remarkable is that the majority of these people had no prior connection to the Catholic Church or anyone who was Catholic. By God's grace, they somehow found the faith. We didn't know these people or who they were. It wasn't that they had been to our Masses or heard someone talk about what it meant to be Catholic. By earthly standards, they should never have come to faith. But God saw them. God reached out to them. God started the process.

The sacrifices people make when becoming Catholic astound me. It is not everybody, but in an age that prides itself on tolerance, you would be amazed at how many relationships are broken because someone says they want to go to Mass or they want to get confirmed. Christ told us, "If the world hates you, it is because it hated me first." It is true. People lose friends, are disowned by their family, sometimes even have a spouse threaten to leave them, because they found Christ and the Catholic Church. Sometimes it is because they are of another religion, but more often it is from secular people that they have to endure this.

Those of us who are cradle Catholics can sometimes take our faith for granted. We should not. What we have is a treasure, one that many people are willing to make great sacrifices for. This is real: Jesus Christ is real, His longing for souls is real, heaven is real. This Easter, let us take the Resurrection seriously as proof of that. Let us live our faith with greater confidence and intentionality this coming year.

—Joe Moreshead

MEET OUR NEOPHYTES

Last fall, 9 adults and one teenager made the important decision to become Catholic! We welcome them into our Catholic family as fully initiated members of our faith community. We introduce them to you by their given name followed by their chosen Confirmation name. Please keep them in your prayers. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or know someone who is searching, please see our bulletin insert on Becoming Catholic.

Ismael, Christopher, was born in Leominster, MA and has lived in Maine since the age of 8. He graduated in 2015 from South Portland High School. On his current embarking journey with Catholicism, he has been able to implement a newfound foundation in his life!

In his spare time, he likes to play sports, card games, and spend quality with friends and family.

Lilly, Louise De Marillac, is from Windham. A friend invited her to Christmas Eve Mass in 2022. She has been attending Mass ever since. She went on an ACTS Retreat fall of 2024 (highly recommends it!) In her spare time she enjoys knitting, gardening, and walking.

John, Richard of Chichester, was introduced to the Church in 2019 and grew closer to the faith when preparing for marriage. He has come to appreciate the comfort, joy, and sense of community the Church fosters. He especially enjoys being outside with family.

Malcolm, Michael, grew up in Worcester, MA. He enjoys music, cars, and the outdoors. He was drawn to the Catholic church by circumstance and wanting to find a purpose.

James, Ignatius of Antioch, is a Maine native and the father of a family of six, many of whom are now grown and married. He worked for much of his life as a fisherman and currently lives in Freeport.

Melissa, Lucia Filippini, wasn't raised with any religious background, but her journey led her to the Catholic Faith, which she has now embraced. Her decision to become Catholic was deeply personal, influenced in part by her daughter's faithful grandmother. She wants to provide her daughter with a strong Catholic foundation, giving her guidance and the values that come with it.

Chloe, Philomena, has lived in Maine her entire life. She graduated from Yarmouth High School in 2018 and Wheaton College in 2022. Though she didn't grow up in the Church, she has gained an appreciation for God's Grace and Love over the last year. She loves to read, go to the beach, go out for walks, and sing.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation

MEET OUR NEWEST FAMILY MEMBERS

Diana, Rose of Lima, grew up in midcoast Maine; graduated from Wiscasset High School in 2000 and Hobart & William Smith Colleges in 2004. She then moved to New York City to start a career in finance. Submerged in the Big Apple, Diana met her Italian, Luigi. In 2013 they married and soon had two beautiful children, Raymond (8) and Violet (7). In 2018, Diana returned to Maine with her family and settled in Falmouth. Luigi, a born Catholic, chose to raise their children Catholic, and so Diana felt a strong desire to convert to Catholicism. Having been raised Protestant, God's love was always present. Diana very much looks forward to becoming more involved with the Church and strengthening her relationship with God.

John, Sebastian, grew up in Hallowell after moving there from MA as a young child. He went to Cony High School and Colby College and remained in the state as an adult, residing in Yarmouth for the last 21 years with his wife, Erin. He is excited to join their daughter, Chloe, in the Sacraments through OCIA and to convalidate his nearly 30 year marriage to Erin. When not operating his own business, John manages a large adult hockey group in Falmouth that plays 5 days per week.

FMI, visit pothe.org/rcia, call our parish office (207) 847-6890, or email, pothe.faithformation@portlanddiocese.org.
