PARISH OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Scheduling Announcement No Adoration, July 7

There will be no
Eucharistic Adoration at Holy Martyrs on Monday, July 7.

Eucharistic Procession

Corpus Christi Sunday

On June 22, POTHE
combined the 8 and 11
am Masses at Sacred Heart to offer a solemn Holy Mass at 10 am with a Eucharistic Procession through the streets of Yarmouth directly following Mass.
Thank you to all of our Eucharistic Guardian
volunteers, altar
servers, and choir members for giving our parish family the opportunity to celebrate this most special day.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

“And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” -Matthew 16: 18—19

PASTOR'S PONDEROSA

Dear Parishioners,

A heartfelt thank you to all who took the time to come to Fr. Paul's going-away dinner this past week. It was a wonderful gathering that I am sure touched Fr. Paul deeply. Thank you to all who helped and assisted in any way, setting up, gathering and cooking food, decorations, taking down. As his brother priest, I am grateful to him for all the support he has given me in my first pastorate over these past years.

A large thank you to all who helped make our patronal solemnity of Corpus Christi so beautiful and reverent throughout our parish, from our musicians, servers, lectors, sacristans, and extraordinary ministers to all who spent time with our Lord as a Eucharistic Guardian and to all who helped witness to the Town of Yarmouth in our Eucharistic Procession. I know many people were involved, so once again, I thank you enormously.

As we are preparing for a time of transition for our parish, I would like to thank those of you who have taken the time to offer me your understanding and support in making a difficult decision. Although some may no longer have access to their preferred time and place for Mass, a parish is first and foremost a community of the Christian faithful that exists in a particular area. More beautiful than any building is the work God does in our souls through the gifts of His Holy Spirit. Even when the normal time and place of worship of a community may change, the gifts with which God has endowed that community are not lost: "For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable" (Romans 11:29); indeed, the gifts of all remain necessary for the building up of the body of Christ, the Church. I hope that the gifts God has given to His people here at POTHE will continue to bear abundant fruit.

Lastly, today we get to celebrate something that happens only once every seven years. June 29 is the combined celebration of Saints Peter and Paul, both apostles and martyrs. Saints Peter and Paul are considered the foundational pillars of the Church. Peter represents the stability of the Church and the office of the Vicar of Christ. Paul represents the mission of evangelization that was entrusted to the Church by Jesus Himself. Their twin martyrdom reminds us that the Church must be both stable and mission oriented. It must remain grounded in the ancient Truth yet grow and flower with an ongoing understanding of the mysteries of faith.

As we honor these two pillars of the Church, recall that, though they are great saints, they were also ordinary men called to extraordinary vocations. They responded, and God used them in ways they could have never imagined. Ponder your own calling considering theirs and resolve to lay your life down for the Church, joining yourself to these two men so that God can continue their holy mission through you.

Have a great week!

—Fr. Cartwright

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING NEEDS: We are accepting adult, casual summer clothing for men and women. Clothes must be clean and in good, usable condition. We especially need men's clothing. Place donations in the collection bins—Holy Martyrs between the narthex and the parish hall, in ground entrance of Sacred Heart, and at the back of St. Gregory the Great. Thank you to all of our volunteers who support St. Vincent de Paul Mission. The St. Vincent de Paul Mission serves the homeless. Therefore, we accept clothing suitable for people in this condition. No children's, dress or business clothing. No household items. FMI: Evelyn, (207) 447-1086.

CALIX MEETINGS: Beginning July 6, CALIX meetings will be held in Portland on Sundays at 6:00 pm in the upper Sacristy at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 307 Congress Street. CALIX is an association of Catholic alcoholics, drug addicts, and family members and friends affected by addiction, who are maintaining their sobriety through participation in their Catholic faith and a 12-Step program.

ST. MONICA CLUB: The St. Monica Club is a prayer group for women to gather each month to pray for the conversion of their families. Meetings begin in the Holy Martyrs chapel with prayers and reflections and conclude with social time in the hall. Meetings are typically held the first Thursday of the month. Due to the July 4th holiday, our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, July 10, 6:30 pm. To learn more and to join the email list, visit pothe.org/st-monica-club.

GRIEF MINISTRY: The process of grieving doesn't happen quickly. It takes time and effort. It also takes patience and tolerance—with yourself. The death of a loved one changes your life forever, but you are not alone. We invite you to join us the first and third Thursdays of the month at 6 pm in St. Jude hall. Our next meeting is July 3. FMI: Gretchen, (508) 935-6395.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS | COUNCIL #15791: Thank you for your continued support of our Council through your participation in the CLYNK recycling program. For more information about the Knights of Columbus in our parish, call Jacob, membership director, (603) 918-6969. FMI, visit www.kofc.org/joinus.

FROM OUR FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

OF SNEAKERS AND SCANDAL

Part of being a competitive swimmer was going to dryland workouts. For most sports, "dryland" goes without saying. (Holding a basketball practice in Back Bay would be odd indeed). But for swimmers, we had to make a special point to run, do squats, situps, and pushups and other sweat breaking activities twice a week to build up muscles that our time in the pool may not account for.

In the beginning, these workouts took place on a patch of grass across from the pool parking lot. In time, they moved to a local gym. Precisely because I was a swimmer, going to a gym was a novelty. The rules, decorum, and expectations of the institution were all new.

On the first day, we were told that street shoes were not allowed. Any rocks we tracked in were liable to scratch the wooden floor on which we were working out. I heard the rule and understood the logic and went home to find something suitable.

My school shoes were out of the question. My running shoes looked suitable, but I used them for running cross country which was outside by definition. However, I had a pair of sneakers that hadn't been used for almost a year. They were old and holes were starting to wear in them. Plus, I had used them when I was digging a new cellar for our camp the past three summers. The digging project had stained them permanently brown, but they were otherwise clean and were never worn on the street. That seemed to fit the rule.

When I showed up with them, our dryland coach was not impressed. "You can't have street shoes in here." "But these aren't street shoes." Looking at the dirt colored shoes, my coach replied, "Yeah, right." I had to find something different.

At the time, I was ready to defend my case and how they really did fit the criteria, but looking back, this was an early lesson for me in the way in which appearances really do matter. Even though my shoes were technically not street shoes, no one would believe that by their appearance. As far as enforcing the rule, it would give everyone else in the gym the clear impression that street shoes were allowed. It wasn't enough that they weren't street shoes in reality, they needed to be that way in appearance.

The same is true with our moral lives. For instance, when you appear to have lied (but technically didn't). Or when you spend too much one on one time with someone of the opposite sex who is not your spouse. Your actions may actually be within moral boundaries, but if the appearance doesn't line up with that, there's still a problem. We call it scandal. Our example can lead other people into sin; it is important that we remember that the appearance of sin can do that just as effectively as the reality of it.

—Joe Moreshead

VACATION BIBLE CAMP: Join our Parish at Vacation Bible Camp this year, July 14-18, 9 am-noon. This year's theme is Wilderness Adventure. This program was created to help children explore, learn, and grow in their Catholic Faith. The goal of this program is to help children better understand the seven Sacraments and deepen their love for Jesus. We are looking for campers in rising grades K-5. Camp will take place at Holy Martyrs this year! Registration is open now on our website, pothe.org/vacation-bible-camp.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR VACATION BIBLE CAMP: We are in need of adult/teen volunteers to help set up/decorate for Vacation Bible Camp on Friday, July 11 from 10 am to 2 pm at Holy Martyrs Hall. We could also use some help with miscellaneous things in the meantime. For details, contact Kim Lovett, kim.lovett@portlanddiocese.org.

The 60th annual Yarmouth Clam Festival is just around the corner from July 18-20. We need your help! This is a significant fundraiser for the parish each year. We offer parking, cotton candy, beverages, and grilled hamburgers and hot dogs on site at Sacred Heart Church, and cotton candy and snow cones on the Yarmouth Town Green. By volunteering, you not only support our parish, but it's an opportunity to meet other parishioners and have fun! FMI, contact Molly at mollydilorenzo@gmail.com. To sign up for a 3-hour slot (or more!) visit our website, pothe.org and click on the Clam Festival Banner, or scan the QR code.
