A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place.” -Luke 14: 8 — 9

PASTOR'S PONDEROSA

Dear Parishioners,

In addition to the construction of the Fr. Jim Morrison Narthex currently taking place at St. Gregory the Great, I need to draw your attention to other parish facility projects that must be completed and need your support.

A great blessing of our POTHE family is the gift of the buildings and grounds that serve as the "home base" for our Catholic Life. From our church where the Most Holy Eucharist is offered, to the halls and rectories where we gather, teach, and serve, these spaces allow us to live our mission as disciples of Christ. They are not simply structures; they are sacred places where God meets His people.

Yet, with this blessing comes a great responsibility. Our parish is entrusted with the care and maintenance of eight facilities. Each one requires attention to address the needs that arise in the natural course of time like roofing and parking lot repairs, and maintaining accessible entryways.

Maintaining eight facilities is no small task. Utility bills continue to rise. Insurance, upkeep, and repairs demand constant resources. While regular weekly offertory giving helps to sustain our daily operations, it simply cannot cover the large-scale needs that come with aging buildings and infrastructure. That is where our POTHE Capital Campaign comes in, where every single penny stays in our parish.

First, we need to repair the front stairs and ADA access ramp at St. Jude. The stairs and landing railings will be fixed to meet current building and safety codes. The current ADA ramp is rotting and unusable. The new ramp will be metal to withstand Maine's harsh weather. This project will cost $25,000, and after receiving bids, we have contracted Dirigo Property Services from Litchfield to complete the work.

Second, the cedar fence at Holy Martyrs is beyond its life-span as sections of the fence have already fallen. This fence needs to be removed and replaced. After receiving bids, we have contracted with Aroostook Fence from Lewiston to complete the work. They will be installing a new 6-foot white vinyl fence. This project is estimated to cost $13,000 with the work being completed in mid-October, hopefully.

The truth is simple: we can only maintain eight facilities by a collective effort. Your generosity ensures that we are faithful stewards of what has been entrusted to us. Even more, your regular giving to the POTHE Capital Campaign is an act of hope, it proclaims that we believe our parish's future.

If you are interested in subsidizing either of these projects, please reach out to me personally, or you may donate directly to the POTHE Capital Campaign on WeShare. Our next quarterly collection will be next weekend, September 6 and 7. Please prayerfully consider how God is calling you to respond to these important efforts. The needs are real, but so too are the opportunities. Together, with trust in God and the intercession of Our Lady, we can build a strong foundation for the future of POTHE.

—Fr. Cartwright

Called to Discipleship ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

JOIN THE PARISH CHOIRS THIS FALL: Music ministry at POTHE provides beauty, joy, comfort, inspiration, and musical prayer for our liturgies and various parish celebrations. This is possible due to the generous sharing of time and talent of diverse and committed members. If you can carry a tune and want to learn, come sing with us! Choir rehearsals resume in earnest in September making it the perfect time to add your voice to this ministry. Reach out in person to the following music ministers:

- Holy Martyrs Jeffrey Coggins
- St. Jude Duncan McFarland
- St. Gregory the Great Dave Bartoletti or Chip Carney
- Sacred Heart Ron Siviski or Jen Runge

Or fill out the online Interest Form at pothe.org/sacredmusic!

YOUTH SCHOLA: Our first rehearsal is September 22. Children in grades 3 and up can enroll in our youth choir program. Rehearsals are held weekly beginning Monday, September 22, 2025 from 4-5 pm in the Sacred Heart Hall. Choristers will sing the Mass approximately 3-4 times at 8:30 am Faith Formation Masses as well as at several other special liturgical events, including a field trip to the Cathedral in Boston! Benefits include learning healthy vocal development, how to read chant and modern notation, cantor training, and learning music theory. FMI, visit our website or contact Director of Sacred Music, Jennifer Runge, Jennifer.runge@portlanddiocese.org.

FRIENDS IN FAITH—ALL ARE WELCOME! Our group of faith-filled friends welcomes new members at any time! We examine engaging programs from formed.org or Catholic publishers. Programming varies by liturgical season. Most importantly, we support each other with friendship and prayer on the road to salvation. We meet Tuesday mornings from 10:30 am to noon. You may join us in person at Holy Martyrs in Falmouth, or via Zoom. Our first meeting for this year is Tuesday, September 2. We are starting off with an exciting program from Ascension, Jesus: The Way, the Truth and the Life by Marcellino D'Ambrosio. You won't want to miss it! FMI: Happy at happyccopley@gmail.com.

TRIBUNAL PRESENTATION ON ANNULMENTS: Some marriages lack the necessary knowledge or consent to make the marriage vows valid. When this happens, a member of the faithful can ask the Church to investigate and declare whether or not those vows were valid and binding. When the Church finds they were not, these are called "declarations of nullity" or annulments. If you are divorced and remarried, are in an irregular marital situation, or have questions about the validity of a previous marriage, this is a great opportunity to learn about ways of moving forward. A representative from the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal will offer a presentation on Tuesday, September 9 at 6 pm in the hall at Holy Martyrs.

Sharing God's Word ~ Through Faith Formation and Pastoral Life

FROM OUR FAITH FORMATION DIRECTOR

A NEW CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL IN PORTLAND

There is a project in the works that I am really excited about, and you should be, too.

Over the years, one of the major questions in my mind has been, "How are we going to make Maine Catholic again?" It is clear to me that living the Faith today means having to stand up to challenges that my parents and grandparents never had to. It is also clear to me that the foundations my generation received in the Faith are a lot weaker than those my grandparents received. If you put those two factors together, it explains a lot about the downward trend of the Faith among millennials.

So how to reverse the trend? In past years, it was Catholic education that gave our children the foundations and defenses they needed to hold to the Faith through the ups and downs life and society threw at them. I've been campaigning for a renewal in Catholic education since I was a student. Our schools are trying hard, but the reality is that places like my alma mater Cheverus aren't in a position to give the robust kind of Catholic education they used to. Too many compromises have been made over the years and changing the culture of the school (while a worthwhile project) would take a lot of work. Besides, the price tag for such schools has become unaffordable for most families.

So what do you do if you want a robust Catholic education for your child? Where do you look that hasn't in some ways surrendered to the tide of modern culture? And if you did find such a place, how would you afford it?

Enter Chesterton Academies. Chesterton Academies are a relatively new movement and they're spreading like wildfire around the country. They are affordable, classical, thoroughly Catholic schools. There was a Chesterton Academy starting up when I was living in Detroit. I actually applied to teach there and had the privilege of touring the school. I was deeply impressed. The students at that school were exposed to the variety and riches of Western culture. They were learning rhetoric, philosophy, Latin. They were reading and engaging the great works of Western civilization, like Dante and Chaucer. They were developing critical thinking skills that would enable them to hold their own in any discussion or debate. They were doing all this in a thoroughly Catholic environment. They had Mass as a school every day. They prayed every day. Their classes on Theology were based on the Bible and the Catechism and never apologized for the Faith.

The Diocese of Portland is starting up a Chesterton Academy in the Portland area. The goal is to open in the fall of 2026. This is an incredible opportunity for Catholic families. If you have a child who will be a freshman in fall 2026, I strongly encourage you to go to <https://mainecatholiceducation.org/chesterton-academy> to express interest. We need at least 15 students enrolled to start. Trust me, it's worth checking out.

BECOME CATHOLIC! CLASSES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 8:

Those interested in becoming Catholic are invited to attend the first OCIA class of the year on Monday, September 8, from 6:30-8 pm at Holy Martyrs. OCIA stands for Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. It is the process by which someone learns about the Catholic Faith and prepares to receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil Mass in the spring. FMI, submit a Request Info form on our website, pothe.org/ocia.

CATHOLICISM 101: THE CHURCH IN THE MODERN

WORLD: Catholicism 101 continues this fall with the final session on Church history. After two sessions discussing the ancient foundations of the Church, this year we will talk about the ideas and events that led to situations Catholics face today. From the overthrow of the English King James II for being a Catholic convert, to the persecution of the Church during the French Revolution, to the 19th century dispute about the degree to which Catholics could assimilate into American culture, the final session promises to be exciting. Classes meet weekly, September 19 through November 25, at the following times: Fridays at 6:05 pm (St. Jude), Saturdays at 5:15 pm (St. Gregory the Great), Tuesday mornings at 9 am (Sacred Heart) and Tuesday evenings in person and livestreamed at 7 pm (Holy Martyrs). FMI and to sign up, visit: pothe.org/catholicism101.

CATECHESIS FOR TEENS—SIGN UP NOW! Students in

Grades 6-12 are invited to the first meeting of the Oratory on Sunday, September 7 at Sacred Heart, from 5-7 pm. The Oratory is our catechesis program for middle school and high school students. The night begins with games and fellowship, followed by food, then a discussion on faith, and ends with prayer. This year, middle school will be discussing the hidden lessons on faith in The Chronicles of Narnia, and high school will be discussing atheism, relativism, and the nature of truth in the novel The Ball and the Cross. Groups are divided into middle-school boys, middle-school girls, and a co-ed high school group. To sign up, go to pothe.org/ffreg.

FAMILY CATECHESIS BEGINS SEPTEMBER 28: Families with children in first through fifth grade are encouraged to sign up for our parish family catechesis program called Families In Religious Education (FIRE). The theme for this year is Christian prayer. This is whole family catechesis, so parents or guardians are asked to attend, and childcare is available for infants and toddlers. Our first monthly FIRE meeting will be on Sunday September 28 at Holy Martyrs Church, beginning with 8:30 am Mass, followed by breakfast at 9:30 am and classes 9:45 am-11:30 am. To sign up, go to <https://pothe.org/ffreg>.
