Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Labor Day weekend! I hope Labor Day is a time of rest and reflection for you.

Each year we are happy to have the service of Dominican Brothers who come to the parish and assist us in education, liturgy and faith formation. In addition to Brother Isaiah Beiter, OP, who was ordained a deacon in March, we are blessed to have the assistance of Brother Bartholomew Calvano. He was raised, along with an older sister and younger brother, in an itinerant family, his father being in the Air Force. After his father retired, the family settled in Chesapeake, VA where they are members of the Parish of St. Stephen Martyr. Brother Bartholomew then attended Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, where he graduated with a B.A. in Molecular Biology and Biochemistry/Mathematics/Computer Science and a minor in Chemistry. For two years before entering the Order of Preachers, he worked with The Brotherhood of Hope in campus ministry at Northeastern University in Boston. "Deeply drawn to contemplation but also recognizing a clear call from God to evangelize, the mixed life of the Order of Preachers, most elegantly expressed by the motto, 'contemplari et contemplata aliis tradere,' immediately attracted me." Welcome Brother Bartholomew to our parish.

Your servant in Christ,
Father Richard

Shortly after tying the knot, a young married couple started arguing over who should make the coffee. Being a good Christian woman, the wife went to the scriptures for her answer. She said that the Bible specifically stated that men should be the ones to make the coffee. Puzzled, the husband asked her where in the Bible it said that. Very confidently, the wife opened up her Bible and said: "It's right here—HEBREWS."

The proof of love is in the works. Where love exists, it works great things. But when it ceases to act, it ceases to exist. -St. Gregory the Great ORATORIAN COMMUNITY: On Monday of this past week, the Feast of Blessed Juvenal Ancina of the Oratory, Benjamin Schulte received the habit of St Philip as a novice in our Oratorian community. Brother Benjamin will be around in the parish and involved with a number of activities, please take the opportunity to introduce yourself and welcome him to St Thomas, Apostle.

CATECHESIS: It is that time of the year when we begin preparation for those who are going to receive Sacraments for the first time next year. So we can organize sessions and catechists, please let us know if your son or daughter wishes to prepare for First Holy Communion or Confirmation, or if you are an adult who wishes to be confirmed or received into the full communion of the Catholic Church. If you are an adult who wishes to be baptized, we will be able to organize your preparation for the RCIA either individually or with others. Please speak to a member of the Oratorian community or ring the rectory and leave a message with your phone number.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW more about the Catholic Faith or becoming a Catholic? If so, please contact the rectory to speak with one of the priests. We look forward to hearing from you.

CONFIRMATION: We look forward to welcoming Bishop Campbell, Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, who is coming to confirm our young people on September 24th at 7:00pm.

How to Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, using a set of rosary beads:

1. Begin with an Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Apostles' Creed
2. On the large beads: Eternal Father, I offer You the body, blood, soul and divinity of Your dearly Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.
3. On the small beads: For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
4. At the end, say three times: Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
