Entrance Antiphon

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people, "The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead." God brought to fulfillment what the prophets announced long ago: that the Messiah would suffer.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 4:2,4,7-8,9

Lord, let your face shine on us.

Second Reading

1 John 2:1-5a

John told believers that Christ Jesus is a just intercessor who offers sacrifice for the sin of the whole world and that a person cannot know Jesus without keeping his commands.

Gospel

Luke 24:35-48

The risen Christ appeared to the disciples and said, "Peace be with you ." The Lord ate cooked fish in their presence and discussed the law, prophets and psalms with them, opening their minds to understand the Scriptures.

a fundraiser for Mundelein Seminary from April 11 through April 24.

Our Council has begun by donating the first $100.

MUNDELEIN SEMINARY

Mundelein Seminary is located in Illinois and is training one of our Knights and fellow parishioner, Josh Miller. The seminary is responsible for the priestly formation of a total of 138 seminarians from 30 dioceses.

Due to Covid-19, their Conference and Religious Retreat facility had to be shut down. They lost $2 million income which is a significant part of their ability to train future Priests.

You may give on-line by going to straphaelfairbanks.org and clicking on the Donation button, or leave a check in the collection basket with "Mundelein" in the memo line any time in the next two weeks.

Blessed James Oldo

You've heard rags-to-riches stories. Today, we celebrate the reverse.

James of Oldo was born into a well-to-do family near Milan in 1364. He married a woman who like him, appreciated the comforts that came with wealth. But an outbreak of the plague drove James, his wife, and their three children out of their home and into the countryside. Despite those precautions, two of his daughters died from the plague. James determined to use whatever time he had left to build up treasures in heaven and to build God's realm on earth.

He and his wife became Secular Franciscans. James gave up his old lifestyle and did penance for his sins. He cared for a sick priest, who taught him Latin. Upon the death of his wife, James himself became a priest. His house was transformed into a chapel where small groups of people, many of them fellow Secular Franciscans, came for prayer and support. James focused on caring for the sick and for prisoners of war. He died in 1404 after contracting a disease from one of his patients. James Oldo was beatified in 1933.
