Letter from a Priest

Ordinary Time Spiritual Practices Too!

I like to think about ordinary time as the school of the Holy Spirit. During ordinary time we will have readings which teach about being a Missionary Disciple of Christ. This means, you are a follower of Jesus who has a deep spiritual life and who is engaged in Evangelizing. In other words, an ordinary life of a Catholic Christian.

It seems to me that just as during Lent and Advent, one takes on spiritual practices that are related to that season, one should also take on spiritual practices for ordinary time as well. If one uses the same paradigm which we use for Lent, we can readily shift the focus of the practices to match each season. The paradigm is prayer, fasting, alms giving, and self-denial.

Prayers during Ordinary time should be focused on growing one's relationship with God, and on studying the faith in order to be better able to help other people find a deeper relationship with God. Prayer should include devotional prayers, mental prayer, and times of silence, (contemplative prayer). I highly recommend that each season of the Church year one should pick a book from the New Testament and read and reread it in order to get a better understanding of the stories in the Bible. This season I am reading and re-reading the Book of Acts, chapter 17 to Chapter 28.

Fasting during Ordinary time should be done once per week. The Catholic fast is usually two small meals and one regular sized meal, with no snacking. Most people fast on Wednesday or Friday. I will try and fast on Thursday's this season. (Don't forget to fast before Mass)

Alms giving has to do with the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. One should be looking for ways to serve others, and ways to forgive, teach, admonish, comfort, etc. These works of mercy also include hospitality, Social Justice, and Evangelization. Dorothy Day once said that if your life does not touch on the Works of Mercy each week, then you are missing the true meaning of the Gospel. I will be focusing on Evangelization this season of Ordinary Time.

Self-Denial is a practice of making small sacrifices for God. It is a matter of picking something you like and giving it up for one day a week. I am trying to give up my morning coffee on Wednesdays this season.

In addition to these practices I also want to remind you of your Spiritual Survival Kit. These are the practices that help us to not only survive, but thrive. There are 5 in my kit. The Holy Mass and Holy Confession, the Holy Rosary, Holy Scripture, and Spiritual Reading. I recommend that if you do not go to daily Mass, try and go one extra time per week. I further recommend that you go to confession in each season of the year. I also recommend that you use the rosary for mental prayer, and every third book or so, read the life of a saint. (We have a library downstairs filled with good books).

This year, we as a Church are reading the Gospel of St. Matthew. Keep that in your mix too.

Peace, love, and joy

Fr. Simon Felix

Broken Front Doors Update

We are currently working toward a solution for the main doors to the Gathering Space. We apologize for the continued inconvenience.

At present, the hardware on the door is broken beyond repair. Estimates to have the doors replaced are more than $12,000. This is because the entire system of frames and doors would need to be replaced. Tim Mercer is working to identify if and how a less expensive, but only temporary, solution can be made.

Unfortunately, issues like this in the Church and Gathering Space are going to continue to come up as almost everything in both is nearly 30 years old and is at or well beyond its life expectancy. We hope to address these issues with the next phase of our master plan, but, in the meantime, we will need to cobble together solutions as problems arise.

Prayer Teams

There will be intercessory and healing prayer teams at Adoration from 7:45-8:45pm on Thursdays when IU is in session. Come pray with Fr. Simon and a FOCUS missionary.

"Build Community. Encounter Christ. Spread the Gospel." Program

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about our upcoming renewal program "Build Community. Encounter Christ. Spread the Gospel."

This effort continues to be very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Paul Catholic Center. We, as a parish family, not only have changed so many lives in our community, we also send our students forth, all over the country and Church. In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do. Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on February 11&12.

If you have any questions regarding the "Build Community. Encounter Christ. Spread the Gospel." Program, please feel free to contact the parish office.

E6 Catholic Men's Conference

Mark your calendar for the 2023 E6 Catholic Men's Conference, which will be taking place on Saturday, February 18th 2023, at the East Central High School Performing Arts Center in St. Leon, IN (80 miles southeast of Indianapolis and 35 minutes northwest of Cincinnati). We cordially invite every man to attend this 8th annual event. Please join us for inspiring talks, confession (available all day), celebration of the Holy Mass, and fraternity with fellow men of Christ. We pride ourselves on presenting a quality, substance-driven, inspirational and faith-filled event that will change men's lives and help equip them to be the man Christ calls them to be. Do not miss this! More details and tickets are on sale now at www.e6cmc.com.

Retreat at Mother of the Redeemer

On February 17-19, 2023, Friar Roderic, FI will lead a Weekend Retreat titled "Franciscan Spirituality in a Materialistic, Divided World" at Mother of the Redeemer Retreat Center in Bloomington, IN. Find out how Franciscan, Marian Spirituality is the perfect antidote to the materialism of our day, which has caused a much divided, polarized world. For this reason, the 800-year-old spirituality from St. Francis, the poverello of Assisi, is key to realizing all the hopes, even the high-tech, futuristic hopes of our modern society. During this retreat we will learn about what this Franciscan, Marian Spirituality has to offer the modern world, and how to practice this spirituality as well. The retreat will run from 6:30pm on Friday to 11am on Sunday, and the cost for the retreat is $50.70 for commuters, with Guesthouse rooms available at an additional cost. For more information, or to register, call (812) 825-4642 ext. 1, or go online to www.MotheroftheRedeemer.com.

Women's Bible Study

Women's Bible Study continues to meet every Thursday morning from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. both at St. Paul's and on Zoom. We use the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible series purchased from Amazon. If you are interested in joining us and/or have questions, contact rkwhiteside@comcast.net.

Inspired by the Dominican way?

The Dominicans promise to devote their lives to the four "pillars" of prayer, study, community, and apostolate. This means living and preaching the Gospel through their daily lives.

The "Dominican Family" is an extended worldwide community of Friars, Sisters, and Lay Fraternities. St. Paul Catholic Center is host to a group of a Dominican Laity, the Chapter of Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary.

Is the Dominican way of life and spirituality right for you?

We are men and women, both married and single, who work in support of the Dominican Community here at St. Paul's, and in solidarity with Dominicans throughout the world. The Bloomington chapter invites others in our faith community to consider joining with them in following the example of St. Dominic and the Dominican saints.

If you are interested in finding out more about the work of the Dominican Laity contact Mrs. Mary Sue Veerkamp-Schwab, O.P. at 908-313-7233.

Eucharistic Revival

Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal.

In the midst of these roaring waves, Jesus is present, reminding us that he is more powerful than the storm. He desires to heal, renew, and unify the Church and the world. How will he do it? By uniting us once again around the source and summit of our faith—the Holy Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the entire Catholic Church in the U.S. to this divine invitation.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When Jesus called Simon and Andrew, they left “at once” to follow him; when he called James and John, they did likewise. St. Peter, St. Andrew, St. James and St. John, pray for us, that God will grant us similar courage and clarity when called by Christ.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Marianne Cope immigrated to the USA from Germany when she was a child. A gifted leader, she oversaw schools, hospitals, and missions during her long life. Most notably, she volunteered to provide care to those outcast with leprosy in Hawaii.

PRAYER

Prayer for St. Marianne Cope's intercession

Lord Jesus, you who gave us your commandment of love of God and neighbor, and identified yourself in a special way with the most needy of your people, hear our prayer. Faithful to your teaching, St. Marianne Cope loved and served her neighbor, especially the most desolate outcast, giving herself generously and heroically for those afflicted by leprosy. She alleviated their physical and spiritual sufferings, thus helping them to accept their afflictions with patience.

Her care and concern for others manifested the great love you have for us. Through her merits and intercession, grant us the favor which we confidently ask of you so that the people of God, following the inspiration of her life and apostolate, may practice charity towards all according to your word and example.

Amen.
