Easter Greetings From Fr. Bart

April 9, 2023

Dear St. Anne Parish Family,

The Lord is truly risen! Alleluia!

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus heralded the kerygmatic proclamation of our redemption, bringing us the victory of light over darkness; of grace over sin; and of life over death. This is what the celebration of Easter is all about.

Easter is our Passover from darkness to light. In the Resurrection of Jesus, we are guided by the glory of God's light, a light that radiates the fullness of His love for us. We are invited to journey now in the newness of life in which the Paschal light of Jesus is leading us all to the enlightened pathway of our salvation.

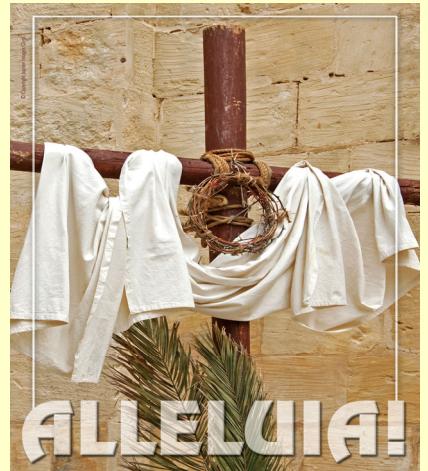

Easter is our Passover from sin to grace. Where sin is strong, the power of God is much stronger. The salvific grace of God, embedded in the glory of Resurrection, destroys the sin that enslaves us. The mystery of Christ's resurrection proves to us that no amount of sin can ever quell the love of God for us. There is but only one victory that stands out in our life, and that is the victory of God's redeeming love that transforms us and leads us to participate in the state of grace, a state to live in the divine presence of God, in the bliss of the promised eternal life. Corollary to this, we are given an open invitation to grow and mature in faith to where the fullness of grace brings us the fulness of life in God.

Easter is our Passover from death to life. By the power of the resurrection of Jesus, death brings no more sting to our life, affording us the freedom to live in God's light and love. The celebration of Easter demonstrates to us that death is not the end of life, nor has the final victory. The life of God in us never dies. The mystery of the resurrection has proven it so. Through this same mystery, we are called to live and flourish in the promise of the eternity of life in the very divine life of God.

God's is always the final victory. His victory brings us always to the newness of life. Let us therefore live in that newness of life that we may have life in full.

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL!

Fr. Bart

Our Parish Vision

Patterned in the spirituality of Saint Anne, we aspire to be an all-embracing, Christ-centered Catholic community fostering collaboration, cooperation, and communion with each other.

Our Parish Mission

We, the people of Saint Anne Parish are called to be witness of our Catholic Faith.

- We are called to faithfully listen, live, and grow in our understanding; and evangelize the message of Jesus.
- United, we gather together to ensure that our Eucharistic celebrations are welcoming, vibrant and meaningful.
- We uphold the dignity of the human person, the importance of family, and the common good of our society, so that our nation may continue to be transformed by the saving power of Christ.
- By virtue of our common priesthood through Baptism, we carry out our missionary endeavor to share the gifts God has given us to the homeless, hungry, and underprivileged in our community.

Our Parish Prayer

Loving and eternal God, we gather in thanksgiving as your people of Saint Anne Parish, listening to your word and celebrating the presence of your Son, Jesus, in the bread and wine we share. Teach us to love and serve each other as Jesus loved and served us. Guide us with the Holy Spirit so that we may become worthy to be one in the Body of Christ. Amen.

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

If Christmas is the “most wonderful time of the year,” then Easter is the most joyous, glorious, awesome time of the year! Really? Today’s readings don’t exactly brim over with the kind of holiday cheer we find at Christmas—except for the responsorial psalm, which admittedly rings with gleeful joy. But otherwise, not so much. In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter gives a dry, condensed rendering of the story of Jesus to a group of Gentiles in Caesarea. The Colossians reading actually does have us looking forward to glory. Most underwhelming, though, is the Gospel proclamation of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we want to hear about angels and earthquakes and trumpets and glory, we hear about a dark, silent, empty tomb. This Easter Sunday story from John’s Gospel is startling in its emptiness. Like Peter in the story, we must enter into this mystery.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

Easter Season

Our Easter celebration lasts fifty days, during which Resurrection joy should overflow the hearts of believers to refresh a parched and weary world with the revivifying waters of faith, hope, and charity. All season, at every Sunday Mass, we read Luke’s Acts of the Apostles, charting the young church’s Spirit-led journey, sometimes peaceful, sometimes persecuted, beset by enemies without and turmoil within. But this young church is always moving onward, from Jerusalem’s familiarity to the strangeness of every place between there and Rome; and outward, from an inherited Judaism’s comfortable uniformity to the Gentile world’s challenging diversity. A week after Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday invites us to renew our personal relationship with Jesus. On the Third Sunday of Easter, the disciples at Emmaus recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread, and return to share the Good News even as modern-day disciples should. On Good Shepherd Sunday, the church prays for priestly and religious vocations. All the while, Acts shows people drawn to the early Church because they had seen the Risen Jesus not in person, but in persons, in disciples who still form Christ’s living Body, the Church. Each of us is likewise called to be the kind of disciple, personally and in communion with our brothers and sisters, in whom those who seek Jesus may at least glimpse his presence.
