Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina for the Nineteenth Week in Ordinary Time

We begin our prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Almighty ever-living God,
whom, taught by the Holy Spirit,
we dare to call our Father,
bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts
the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance
which you have promised.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

(Collect, Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Reading (Lectio)

Read the following Scripture two or three times.
John 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets:

They shall all be taught by God.

Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Meditation (Meditatio)

After the reading, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?
- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

If practicing lectio divina as a family or in a group, after the reflection time, invite the participants to share their responses.

CATHOLIC.BIBLE

Prayer (Oratio)

Read the Scripture passage one more time. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving that the Word inspires in you.

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him and delivers them.
Taste and see how good the LORD is;
blessed the man who takes refuge in him.

(From Psalm 34)

Contemplation (Contemplatio)

Read the Scripture again, followed by this reflection:

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him. How have I experienced God's call?
How have I responded to that call?

Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. How can I become more attentive to the Father's voice? How can I learn from him?

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. What effects does the Eucharist have in my life? How can I give of myself for the world?

After a period of silent reflection and/or discussion, all recite the Lord's Prayer and the following:

Closing Prayer:

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad.

Glorify the LORD with me,
Let us together extol his name.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me
And delivered me from all my fears.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy.
And your faces may not blush with shame.
When the afflicted man called out, the LORD heard,
And from all his distress he saved him.

Living the Word This Week

How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

Spend some time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

LECTIO DIVINA “SACRED READING”

INTRODUCTION

The simple prayer practice of Lectio Divina takes us through four movements, as we are drawn closer to The Father through each prayerful reading of the Scriptures. Choose a short Bible passage that is just a few verses long. We recommend the Book of Psalms or a story from one of the Gospels.

PREPARATION

Make yourself comfortable in a place that is as free from interruptions as possible. Begin with silence for a few minutes, humbly asking the Father to quiet your heart and make you aware that you are in His loving presence.

When you are ready, begin reading and praying through the four movements, described below. With time and practice, these movements will become simple and easy as they flow naturally from one to the other.

1 LECTIO (READ)

On the first reading, simply open yourself to the presence of God. Read the passage slowly and prayerfully, allowing short pauses between sentences. Over time you will discover whether it is more helpful for you to read silently or out loud. Try them both. As you read, take in the words and the overall flow of the passage. Then allow a time of silence following the reading continuing to open yourself to God's Spirit.

2 MEDITATIO (RECEIVE)

On the second prayerful reading of the passage, listen for a particular word or a phrase through which the Father wants to speak to you. You will notice your attention being drawn to something. Once you have "received" the word or phrase, begin to silently meditate on that. Reflect on why the Father would highlight this for you today, ask Him any questions that come to mind, and note things that seem important as you meditate on what He has given you. Remember that the focus is on listening to what the Father has to say to you.

3 ORATIO (RESPOND)

On the third prayerful reading of the passage, listen now for the Father's invitation, and respond from your heart. The Father is always inviting us in some way... to let go of something, or to take up something; to do something or be something. The invitation can take innumerable forms. Following the reading, continue to listen for His invitation and then respond silently or out loud from an honest heart.

4 CONTEMPLATIO (REST)

The focus of the fourth prayerful reading of the passage is to simply rest now in the love that the Father has for you. Let the words wash over you. There is no further need to reflect or respond as you simply allow the Spirit to draw you close and fill you with His love, grace and peace. Linger in this place of deep connection. You are being filled and refreshed for your continuing journey.

Take your word, phrase or image with you. It is something to which you can return throughout the day. A reminder of the love of the the Father for you and the special word He had for you today.

Entrance Hymn

FIRST READING

1 Kings 19:4-8

Share in His Mercy Benefit Banquet

Please join us for our Share in His Mercy Benefit Banquet 2021, themed Living by Faith: In the Footsteps of St. Joseph. This year we joyfully extend the invitation to join us at our home, our Motherhouse. The event is on Saturday September 25th and begins with lunch at 1pm. This meal will include indoor or outdoor seating options for our guests. Following the meal our program will be held in our chapel with a Sunday vigil mass to follow. Additionally, we will be offering the option for guests to join us virtually from their own homes. This event is our greatest fundraiser. It is important to our sustainability because over 70% of our income comes from the generous support of benefactors like you! Your support makes it possible for us to live our life of prayer, participate in works of mercy to the poor, give guidance and witness to students on college campuses, visit nursing homes, and develop vocations! Registration is required and can be found at www.franciscansisterstor.org/events/share-his-mercy-benefit-2021. We hope to see you there!
