Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina for the Sixth Week in Ordinary Time

We begin our prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O God, who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true,
grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace
as to become a dwelling pleasing to you.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Collect, Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.

But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

Woe to you who are filled now,
for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will grieve and weep.

Woe to you when all speak well of you,
for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

Reading (Lectio)

Read the following Scripture two or three times.

Jesus came down with the twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.
Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.

Meditation (Meditatio)

After the reading, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?
- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

*If practicing lectio divina as a family or in a group,
after the reflection time, invite the participants to share their responses.*

CATHOLIC.BIBLE

Prayer (Oratio)

Read the Scripture passage one more time. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving that the Word inspires in you.

Contemplation (Contemplatio)

Read the Scripture again, followed by this reflection:

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

Blessed are you who are now weeping,/ for you will laugh. What burdens or circumstances in life grieve me? What things in life bring me joy?

Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. What reward do I seek from God? What do I imagine that heaven will be like?

Woe to you when all speak well of you,/ for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way. When have I pursued others' good opinion of me rather than what was right? How do I treat those who speak uncomfortable truths?

After a period of silent reflection and/or discussion, all recite the Lord's Prayer and the following:

Closing Prayer:

Blessed the man who follows not
the counsel of the wicked,
nor walks in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the company of the insolent,
but delights in the law of the LORD
and meditates on his law day and night.

He is like a tree
planted near running water,
that yields its fruit in due season,
and whose leaves never fade.
Whatever he does, prospers.

Not so the wicked, not so;
they are like chaff which the wind drives away.
For the LORD watches over the way of the just,
but the way of the wicked vanishes.

From Psalm 1

Living the Word This Week

How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

Pray for those who have died, especially those who have no one to pray for them.

Show CASA Love!

In February, CASA will begin our 22nd year advocating for abused and neglected children in our community. To date, our volunteers have advocated for over 1400 children, helping them to achieve safe, permanent homes. Last year we began our first ever "Show CASA Love" campaign making over $3000. The goal we are aiming for this year is $5,000. You can help. Local companies will sponsor a giving day, providing the matching donations for individuals who would like to "Show CASA Love" doubling the effects of your gifts. On our website donation page, www.go.rallyup.com/ShowCASALove, you can find out more about A Child's Place CASA, as well as which companies are supporting CASA. Donate on the day your favorite company has sponsored. The company which has the most donations will become A Child's Place CASA's Valentine for 2022. You can go to the website with questions, or contact Tina Thompson at tina@pwl.net.
