Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina for the Twenty-second Week in Ordinary Time

We begin our prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God of might, giver of every good gift,
put into our hearts the love of your name,
so that, by deepening our sense of reverence,
you may nurture in us what is good
and, by your watchful care,
keep safe what you have nurtured.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Collect, Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading (Lectio)

Read the following Scripture two or three times.

Luke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, ‘My friend, move up to a higher position.’ Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Then he said to the host who invited him, “When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

Meditation (Meditatio)

After the reading, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?

CATHOLIC.BIBLE

- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

If practicing lectio divina as a family or in a group, after the reflection time, invite the participants to share their responses.

Prayer (Oratio)

Read the Scripture passage one more time. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving that the Word inspires in you.

Contemplation (Contemplatio)

Read the Scripture again, followed by this reflection:

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. When have I sought worldly acclaim and honor? Who have I excluded?

Give your place to this man. For whom am I willing to make sacrifices? How can I expand that circle?

For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

When have I committed the sin of pride? How can I grow in humility?

After a period of silent reflection and/or discussion, all recite the Lord's Prayer and the following:

Closing Prayer:

The just rejoice and exult before God;
they are glad and rejoice.
Sing to God, chant praise to his name,
whose name is the LORD.

The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling.

God gives a home to the forsaken;
he leads forth prisoners to prosperity.

A bountiful rain you showered down, O God, upon your inheritance;

you restored the land when it languished;
your flock settled in it;

in your goodness, O God, you provided it f or the needy.

From Psalm 68

Blue Mass to honor Police, Fire, EMS and their families

All are invited to attend a special Blue Mass in honor of our local First Responders. The Mass will be held on Sunday September 11th at 10:00am at St. Peter Catholic Church in downtown Steubenville with Bishop Jeffrey Monforton as the Celebrant. Bishop Monforton will distribute a gift to each first responder who is present as a thank you for their service. There will also be an opportunity to have service vehicles blessed by the Bishop. A reception will follow the Mass in the church hall.

The Blue Mass has been celebrated for many years throughout the country as a way to ask for God's blessing upon those who serve their communities, to acknowledge those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice and to support those whose life is committed to serving others. Please join us in praying for our local heroes and for God's protection upon them as they continue to protect us and to serve our community. All Police, Fire, Dispatchers, Corrections, Special Forces and EMS personnel are invited to attend with their families (please be at the church by 9:35am "in uniform" for a group picture with the Bishop).

Works of Mercy

Question:

I've heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. What are they, and what's the difference?

Answer:

As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These — along with burying the dead — are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person. The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world. ©LPI
