SUPPORT the CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

April 29/30

Home mission dioceses across the country face similar challenges: small Catholic populations, great distances between parishes, and economic hardships that make it difficult for parishes to meet the pastoral needs of their communities. Despite these economic challenges, the diocese is committed to forming disciples in the parishes and providing quality education to poor and minority students.

Support from Catholic Home Missions makes the day-to-day ministries of these parishes possible through grants to the diocese for parish operations, training of parish catechetical leaders, youth ministry support, and one-on-one attention to help struggling Catholic school pupils succeed in their education.

For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

MINISTRY

Social Concerns

Our monthly collections have lately been down about 40% from last year and the diapers and wipes are down about 80% from last October. We really need your help! Not everyone can personally talk to a homeless individual or go to a camp and help them, but that's exactly what you are doing when you get involved in the monthly donations that we are sponsoring. We appreciate all your support and generosity and we hope you can continue to help our community's endeavor to practice the Corporal Works of Mercy, most especially on a monthly basis, to help those who are most in need.

We are starting to work with alternative high school students. If you are a teacher, or just have a soft spot for 16-18 year olds in a tough situation, please email mary.shoenberger@jessup.org.
