Fr. Stan's Utterances – Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The month of October is dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God, as a month to pray the rosary each day. I encourage everybody, and all families, to please pray our long standing and beautiful tradition of praying the rosary everyday during all thirty-one days of this month. If you have never done so, now is the time to spend time with our Mother. If you cannot pray the entire rosary due to time, at least pray a decade of the rosary each day. Please make sure the entire family prays, along with the children, our grown-up adult children, young grandchildren and adult grandchildren. After all, if God and Mary is so good to us by helping us so much on earth, should they not receive the same time as we show our mothers here on this earth? Let this month be a spiritual game changer for us all with God and Mary! St. Dominic, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and St. John Paul II the Great prayed the rosary everyday! We are called to do the same. The rosary brings the Gospel to life. If we do not pray the rosary, or seldom do, we should ask ourselves, “Is there something more important right now other than the rosary?” Please spend twenty minutes with God and Mary each day and we become all closer to God and Mary by praying the rosary.

At the end of the fourth Gospel, St. John's Gospel, we are told that if everything Christ did during His brief earthly life were written down, the entire world would not contain the books. So why did St. Luke include this one? Clearly because of the lesson that Christ teaches us by it: the beauty of gratitude. The one leper who came back to thank Jesus is praised for this gratitude. We can almost hear the sadness in Christ's heart at the lack of gratitude in the other nine who were healed. Why does Christ value gratitude so much? Is He vain? Is His self-esteem so weak that He gets depressed if we don't praise and thank Him? The answer is “no.” Therefore, Christ values gratitude because gratitude is valuable - it's valuable for us, for the health of our souls to grow more to be like Christ. In Latin, the word “gratia”, from which we draw our word “gratitude,” means both thanksgiving and grace. True gratitude extends grace and receives everything as grace.

In the first place, gratitude keeps us grounded in the truth, which is key for our ongoing relationship with God. To be ungrateful to God is not only unjust, but it's also living an illusion. The simple fact is that everything we have is a gift from God: creation, life, talents, opportunities, Heaven, the grace that helps us persevere in doing what is right; these are all God's gifts.

In the second place, gratitude is the perfect antidote to sin. Sin turns us in on ourselves, like an ingrown toenail; gratitude opens us up to God and neighbor. It directly contradicts self-centeredness, self-indulgence, and self-absorption. The virtue of gratitude builds bridges, unites communities, and softens hearts. Gratitude is one of the most beautiful flowers in the garden of virtue. Let's make a difference and be the more dedicated thankful disciple of our Lord. St. Paul reminds us always to be grateful because everything is grace.

Christ's encounter with these lepers is so powerful partly because leprosy itself was so terrible. Leprosy was an incurable and deadly disease in ancient times and the days of Jesus. Leprosy is a bacterial infection that causes the extremities of the body to slowly decay away. It was so contagious that even the lepers' closest relatives did not dare to come near them. In ancient times, lepers were required to live in isolated colonies. If they had to travel, the religious law required them to ring a bell wherever they went, shouting out, “Unclean! Unclean!” This explains why these ten lepers addressed Christ “from a distance”, as St. Luke points out. On top of the isolation, lepers had to live with the pain of leprosy. Leprosy was a long, humiliating, and dismal agony, the most horrible of ancient diseases. There was no cure! Imagine the great joy when God comes to heal this terrible sickness. Jesus frees these ten lepers entirely from their agony, giving them a brand new life, and only one of them takes the trouble to thank Him for it - and that one happens to be a Samaritan, the one least likely to respect a Jewish rabbi.

The whole human race was infected with selfishness by original sin, a selfishness that decays our souls as leprosy decays the body. Jesus came to heal and forgive us of our sins and teaching us to sin no more. Christ has saved us! He opened the flood-gates of God's grace through His incarnation, passion, and resurrection. Then, He gives us constant access to that grace through the Church, the Sacraments, and His many other gifts. We all recognize what Christ has done for us - that's why we are here today in church. Christ's message today is that He wants our recognition to go deeper, to become a living attitude of gratitude everyday. God wants us to develop the virtue of gratitude because He wants us to experience the joy that comes from knowing we are loved by Him without limits or conditions. How can we exercise gratitude? There is nothing easier. All we have to do is say thank you and really mean it! It is never too late to say thank you every day to God for the sacrifice of His Son and how many times we have received our Lord in Holy Communion.

May God continue to bless each and every one of you! Let us always be thankful. St. Gerald, pray for us! Our Lady, Undoer of Knots, pray for us! Have a great week and enjoy life with a great smile! Pray the rosary. Pray always!

Reading I

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy. Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant." Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

Reading II

Beloved:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory. This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

Gospel

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."
