News From St. Joseph Parish

Faith Formation

By Sharon Mayer

Did everyone get a chance to come and eat spaghetti last Sunday? For a free will offering, you got a filling meal and to mingle with other parishioners. Our next opportunity will be on Feb. 20th when we eat pancakes! That is a classic meal here for as far back as I can remember. It used to be done by the men of the parish, no women allowed to help, and was offered on a Monday night. I'm sure there are those in the parish who remember the details better than myself, but it was not to be missed. Another classic parish event is the chicken noodle dinner in March. Parish meals are wonderful opportunities for the parish family to help with needs but also to socialize as a parish. I grew up attending those events and I guess once in your blood, that's just how you do things. A very good family tradition for any family and supports your parish at the same time. My children grew up that way as well and now support their own parishes elsewhere. There is a lot to be said for carrying forward traditions.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Court Our Lady of La Salette/ St. Joseph's Parish continue to collect items for their annual layette project. Donations may be left in the cradle in the church lobby. Deadline is Feb. 14.

THE ALTAR ROSARY SOCIETY will serve the Winter Games Bridge tournament next Fri., Jan. 28. Five pans of bars are needed. Call the parish office if you can bake for us.

A FEW working at the spaghetti dinner last Sunday wanted the recipe for the salad dressing. It originally came to us from the late +Monica Jensen, who found the recipe in the cookbook published by St. Mary's Catholic Church, in Storm Lake, IA. We have used the recipe for 20 years! Enjoy!

St. Mary's Band Parent Salad Dressing

2 c. salad oil	2/3 T. Worcestershire sauce	1 c. dark vinegar
1 1/2 tsp. paprika	1 sm. onion, finely chopped	2 tsp. celery seed
1 T. salt	2/3 T. A-1 steak sauce	2 c. sugar

Mix all in blender. Makes 1 quart.

Men's WELCOME Retreat

We all have a deep desire to feel like we belong and as Catholics, to feel welcome in our own parish. Coming up on March 12th-13th, there will be an opportunity for the men of our parish to participate in a WELCOME retreat. It is a chance to meet other Catholic men with similar values, encounter the Holy Spirit intimately, and re-energize your faith. Check the bulletin in upcoming weeks for more information.

Musicians and Cantors Needed

We are in need of more accompanists and cantors for our weekend Masses here at St. Mary's. We love to provide beautiful music at our Masses, unfortunately, we are short on volunteers to help in this aspect of the liturgy. If we cannot find anyone to assist we regrettably will have to celebrate some Masses without music. We are willing to help train anyone interested and can provide a mentor to teach them the procedure of the Mass. Please prayerfully consider if you are called to this ministry. Contact Donna at the church office.

Seeking A Summer Place

Jack Deters, a Mechanical Engineering student at Iowa State University and a member of St. Thomas Aquinas in Ames is searching for a place to stay for the summer. He will be interning at Pure Fishing from May to August of 2022. He is 21 years old and from Quincy, IL. He is reserved, respectful, outgoing and enjoys yard work, and loves to cook. If anyone has a spare room he could rent, he would be most appreciative. Contact Donna in the office for more information and his number.

Pastor's COLUMN

The Bible in a Year

We would like all of you to give some consideration to a great program that can enhance your knowledge of the Bible. Augustine Press in conjunction with Fr. Michael Schmitz, a priest of the Diocese of Duluth, produces a great pod cast that takes a participant through the entire Bible in one year. The program includes two or three daily Bible readings, a reflection by Fr. Micheal Schmitz, and a guided prayer to help you hear God's voice in the scriptures and in your daily life. We have a number of parish members who have begun this project and have spoken very highly of it. Of course, such an undertaking takes some discipline and some intentionality but the project has the potential to be a life changing encounter. Please take a moment to do a bit of research on line and consider signing up for the daily pod cast. It is not too late to begin for this year long path of discovery and spiritual awakening. Bible literacy is a great way to ground you life and your family in the Word of God. For a copy of the reading plan and a link to sign up for the pod cast and to find more detailed information do a search for "Ascension Press Bible in a Year" or <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/biy-registration>. Let take a few minutes a day to explore God's Holy Word together.

Seasonal Storms

Each winter we encounter the "delights" of our changing seasons. Ice and snowstorms often swoop in and temporarily alter our plans and schedules. Please be careful when venturing out during these winter months. If the weather is threatening, please do not feel obliged to come to Church. I live just a few yards from the Church and Fr. Tom does not even have to go outside. Generally speaking, we will not be canceling Mass due to inclement weather, but we ask that you exercise discretion when venturing out when the weather is threatening or frightful. When that happens, please use the time to pray quietly at home. We are so lucky to know the services of so many good folks who work hard each winter to protect us from the bitter elements outside. Let us join together to thank God for the safety and comfort of our homes and ask God's protection for those who work outside in all kinds of weather.

The US bishops' pastoral on stewardship reinforces today's reading from I Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and well-being are the responsibility of the members--the personal responsibility of the members - the personal responsibility of each one of us. We all are stewards of the Church."
