The Deacon's Message

By Deacon Darwin Messerly

Jesus suggests that there are other ways, good ways of being rich, "Rich in what matters to God." St. Paul helps us to understand how to become rich in what matters to God when he wrote.

"Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly:
immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire,
and the greed that is idolatry.
Stop lying to one another"

And earlier in the same text he writes, "Seek what is above." And later he says we have to "put on a new self."

It may feel like today 99.9% of all things we can feel, touch, see, hear, and probably taste are bad for us. And as good and faithful followers of Christ those who seek what is above... we only "get".01% of everything out there. (Sounds like a wide and narrow path to me) but as we cut out of our lives the things St. Paul tells us today, we put on a new self, we then come to see how much more that, 01% has to offer, and believe me it's much more than we could ever know and ever do in a single lifetime...

This is what makes life worth living! Becoming rich in God. I sometimes think about when I die, and go before God, and we all are going to stand before the Lord one day, so this is something everyone should think about....do I want God to say "you barely made it kido, or oops sorry you didn't quite make it", or do we want the Lord to say "Great job! Well done! You are my good and faithful servant, Welcome into your new heavenly home!" I believe we all want to hear that! Amen!

There is no one way to respond to the challenge of today's readings. But, there is surely a way for each of us to seek the narrow road, the life of a Catholic, definitely a life worth living when we think of our everlasting souls!

Seeing Jesus transfigured made Peter want to do something to mark the event. But the Voice from the cloud said clearly that the first task of those who recognize Jesus as Lord is to listen to Jesus -- and then act!
