The Ascension of the Lord

The Ascension is traditionally celebrated on the 40th day after Easter. It signifies Jesus' final departure from his disciples and the end of his public appearances on earth. The Ascension represents Jesus' exaltation to God's right hand, where he reigns as Lord and King. It offers Christians hope and a promise of their own future ascension into heaven, united with Christ.

The Ascension is seen as the beginning of the Church's mission to spread the Gospel and prepare the world for Christ's return. (Holy day of obligation)

The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, refers to the visit of Mary, who was pregnant with Jesus, to Elizabeth, who was pregnant with John the Baptist. (Luke, 1:39-56).

In the story of the Visitation, Mary manifests humility, charity, obedience, and faith. She humbly accepts her role as the mother of God, demonstrates charity by visiting her pregnant cousin Elizabeth, obeys God's will by traveling to see her, and trusts in God's promises.

Memorial Day Prayer

In the quiet sanctuaries of our own hearts, let each of us name and call on the One whose power over us is great and gentle, firm and forgiving, holy and healing ...

You who created us, who sustain us, who call us to live in peace, hear our prayer this day. Hear our prayer for all who have died, whose hearts and hopes are known to you alone ...

Hear our prayer for those who put the welfare of others ahead of their own and give us hearts as generous as theirs ...

Hear our prayer for those who gave their lives in the service of others, and accept the gift of their sacrifice ...

Help us to shape and make a world where we will lay down the arms of war and turn our swords into plough shares for a harvest of justice and peace ...

Comfort those who grieve the loss of their loved ones and let your healing be the hope in our hearts...

Hear our prayer this day and in your mercy answer us in the name of all that is holy. The peace of God be with you.

Making Sense of Your Worth

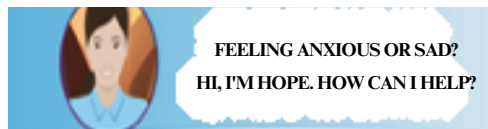

Self-Worth is the foundation of who we are as human beings and in today's world is highly sought after. It plays a role in every decision we make and in every relationship we have.

This ten week program is designed for any person who desires the freedom that comes with living in positive self-worth and secure attachment. The Making Sense of Your Worth Curriculum follows a step-by-step process of gaining positive self-worth. It was created by Cindy R. Lee, LCSW in partnership with HALO Project International and participants in the program show an increase in positive self-worth upon completion.

STARTING JUNE 2nd, 2025
MONDAYS - 1:00pm-3:00pm

Through this program, participants will:

- Make sense of how past events impact present behaviors, interactions, and relationships.
- Work toward healing from negative hurtful events they were exposed to throughout their lives, while also gaining knowledge about secure attachments.
- Learn skills to help build healthy relationships and secure attachments.
