The Easter season—beginning on Easter Sunday and continuing for 50 days—is an opportunity for us to cultivate a spirit that defines who we are as Christians. So what does living the spirit of the Easter season mean in practical terms? Here are three concrete suggestions.

Live with Joy

Joy is a deep-down gladness that cannot be taken away, even in the midst of sorrow. The Passion and Resurrection of Jesus teach us that suffering is transformed through faith in the Risen Christ. With this faith, we are able to hold on to an enduring sense of joy even in the midst of the sadness we experience from the loss of a loved one, a failure to achieve an important goal, or a setback during recovery from an illness.

Live without Fear

The Resurrection teaches us that God can overcome anything, even death. When the Risen Christ appears to the women at the tomb and later to his disciples, his first words are “Do not be afraid!” (Mt 28:5,10) These words speak to our hearts, helping us cope with the fear from the loss of a job, a serious illness, or a crumbling relationship. Our faith allows us to trust that God can overcome our most serious problems.

Live with New Eyes

Easter means to live with a sense of newness. Just as the return of spring lifts our spirits and makes us feel like the whole world is new, the Resurrection of Jesus makes “all things new.” (Rev. 21:5) The Easter spirit is a spirit of renewal that enables us to show up at work with a positive attitude, to renew relationships that have been taken for granted, and to express appreciation and affection to those closest to us. It means to see the world through new eyes—God’s eyes.

Prayer for the Week

Lord God, You loved this world so much that you gave your one and only Son, that we might be called your children too. Lord, help us to live in the gladness and grace of Easter Sunday, every day. Let us have hearts of thankfulness for your sacrifice. Let us have eyes that look upon Your grace and rejoice in our salvation. Help us to walk in that mighty grace and tell Your good news to the world. All for your glory do we pray, Lord, Amen.

Please come again and if you would like to become a member, our contacts are listed above.

To our members, We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers!

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen.

Easter Message 2021

My family in Christ,

“Do not be afraid. He is not here; He has risen.”

A blessed Easter to you all!

Of course, this is anything but a normal Easter, but it is the new reality under pandemic protocols. What we celebrate at Easter lies at the very heart of our faith, the belief that Our Lord Jesus Christ rose from the dead, and through this we have the gift of new life here on earth and for eternity in heaven with him. It's normally a day for much celebration. But we cannot fully celebrate that joy of Easter. Last year Easter 2020 we were right in the very midst of the COVID 19 dreadful crisis. This year Easter 2021 we are grateful that with pandemic protocols in place we are able to gather in person to celebrate the Paschal Mystery. We have to come before God as we are, in the midst of a pandemic, with personal and collective triumphs and trials. Nevertheless, for the Christian we are called always to learn from every experience and to pray that we can see it in the light of our faith. We are in the midst of a pandemic but as Christians we must keep our faith in the Risen Christ ahead of us.

In particular today I would suggest we should pay close attention to the scriptures, to the story of the discovery of the empty tomb. This is the story of a group of people who are in the midst of a crisis, a tragedy, an uncertainty, their leader, their friend, their Lord and master, is dead. It is a crisis point. They are surely surprised, shocked, to discover the stone rolled away. But this is now the start of new life. A new dawn. And they are called to greater faith than ever and to pass that on.

Easter brings so many promises of God to us, light overcomes darkness, life triumphs over death, love trade places with hate, good triumphs over evil. Once again I pray that the resurrected Christ may live in our hearts that we may always embrace his presence in others with love and gratitude.

May we be filled this Easter with the gift of faith in the Risen Christ so we may build a future of hope for our world in a new being called again to new life.
