

Catholic Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

The Annual Appeal is ongoing. Hurricane Dorian and the Covid 19 pandemic has impacted our finances greatly. We are asking for your assistance. Please contact our parish representative: Mrs. Sharon Noville or the parish office to make a contribution today. No amount is too big or small. The cut off date has been extended to September 30th, 2021. Pledges can be paid by December 31st, 2021. Thank you for your continued support!

Quotes on the cross, to inspire you and keep you going in times of trial.

~"It is not the finest wood that feeds the fire of Divine love, but the wood of the Cross." ~St Ignatius of Loyola

~"Whenever anything disagreeable or displeasing happens to you, remember Christ crucified and be silent." ~St John of the Cross

~"When we are overcome by sadness, fear, or suffering; when the pains of loss overwhelm us; when evil seems to have taken power; let us look to the cross and be filled with peace, knowing that Christ has walked this road and walks it now with us and with all our brothers and sisters." ~St Teresa of Avila

~"Do everything calmly and peacefully. Do as much as you can as well as you can. Strive to see God in all things without exception, and consent to His will joyously. Do everything for God, uniting yourself to him in word and deed. Walk very simply with the Cross of the Lord and be at peace with yourself." ~ St Francis de Sales

~"No one, however weak, is denied a share in the victory of the cross.

~No one is beyond the help of the prayer of Christ. His prayer brought benefit to the multitude that raged against him. How much more does it bring to those who turn to him in repentance." ~St Leo the Great~

Prayer for the Week

Dear God, Please teach me to forgive myself and others. Remove the walls that keep love out, Behind which I am a prisoner. Heal my guilt and remove my anger, that I might be reborn. Make gentle my heart and strong my spirit and show me how to love. Please show me how to honor myself. Please teach me how listen to myself. Please program my mind to know itself, that I might at last be free. Teach me to appreciate your spirit that lives within me. Show me how to be good to myself, that might know fully the goodness of life. Amen.

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen.

Reflecting on the Word

Genuine Service of Others

The First Reading is from the third song of the Servant of Yahweh found in the book of Isaiah. Service is a theme of this liturgy, which links it to the theme of peace. After asking God to “give peace and to hear the prayers of your servant,” we pray that God will “show us how great is the call to serve, that we may share in the peace of Christ.”

The service that our faith calls for is genuine service, the actual performance of deeds that benefit those in need. James talks about this kind of service: what good is it, he asks, if we wish others well “but do not meet their bodily needs.”

The problem with commitment to genuine service of others is that it threatens the people of this world, who do not want to carry the burden of caring for people who have nothing to wear and no food for the day. The result is that those who work for peace in society by serving the needy must suffer.

Peter did not understand this principle at first, thinking that liberation could come without the need for suffering. Jesus has to correct him and teach him God’s standard: the Christian life of service amounts to carrying one’s cross in the footsteps of Jesus. The struggle for justice is no party!

Inspired by no earthly ambition, the Church seeks but a solitary goal: to carry forward the work of Christ Himself under the lead of the befriending Spirit. And Christ entered this world to give witness to the truth, to rescue and not to sit in judgment, to serve and not to be served.

~ Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, 1965: 3 ~ Gerald Darring

Memory Verse

“And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard from the beginning, his command is that you walk in love.” ~ 2 John 1:6

Election Prayer

Father in heaven, Watch over our nation during the election time. Protect us from the schemes of the devil to disrupt peace and bring violence amongst ourselves. Cover us with the mighty blood of your Son, Jesus that no harm can get to us. Let the leaders we choose prioritize our safety as citizens and aspire to rule in a way that’s pleasing to you. Let your Holy Spirit guide us in our decision making. Amen.
