

How To Stay On Fire For God

Feed The Flames With The Word Of God

Jesus said that man should not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.
(Matthew 4:4)

Stoke The Furnace With Prayer

Spending time in prayer is spending time in the presence of God, and the presence of God is the air that our souls need to be on fire.

Worship The Lord With Extravagance

Offer up sacrifices of praise with your lips in higher degrees than you are comfortable with. Make praise and worship a real sacrifice of your self-consciousness and self-inhibitions.

Allow The Holy Spirit To Move

Do A Spring Cleaning Of Your Heart

The Bible says that in the last days the love of many will grow cold. Many times this is caused by unforgiveness and bitterness taking hold and building in your heart rather than love.

Prayer of the Week

Father, please give me the courage to decide to follow Jesus fully. Then, dear Father, please give me the wisdom to know how to deal lovingly with those who cannot accept my decision, my passion, and my discipleship. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Catholic Archdiocesan Annual Appeal 2022

The Archdiocesan goal remains at $500,000 and our Parish goal is $34,200. Our parish will benefit through the Parish Sharing Formula and get 40% of any cash over the parish goal and an additional 2% when we achieve the donor target by September 30th, 2022 (date extended from 31st August). Please contact the parish office or parish representatives: Mrs. Rosemary Burton or Mrs. Sharon Noville, to make a pledge or contribution.

Reflecting on the Word
A Poor and Simple Girl

The song that Luke puts in Mary's mouth when she visits Elizabeth speaks of a God who had "deposed the mighty from their thrones and raised the lowly to high places." Mary herself is a prime example of the lowly raised to high places: a poor and simple girl, a virgin from an insignificant part of the world, raised to the status of Mother of God, and today "raised body and soul to the glory of heaven." There is an attractiveness about God raising the lowly that makes it pleasing for us to accept, at least theoretically. We react positively to the raising of a Mother Theresa from the status of lowly servant of the hopeless to that of Nobel Peace Prize winner. We are less attracted to the idea of God deposing the mighty from their thrones, especially if we live in the "First World" and in the country that boasts of being first in the world. Mary said: "The hungry he has given every good thing, while the rich he has sent empty away." This should come as good news to the poor, and should be of some concern to affluent Americans, who belong to the richest five percent of the world's population. Let the entire body of the faithful pour forth persevering prayer to the Mother of God and Mother of men. Let them implore that she who aided the beginnings of the Church by her prayers may now, exalted as she is in heaven above all the saints and angels, intercede with her Son in the fellowship of all the saints.

Vatican II, Constitution on the Church 1964:69 Gerald Darring

Prayer to avert storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
