Knights of Columbus Council 10415

Knights of Columbus Council 10415 is launching it's first Annual Essay Competition in the following categories: Primary, Junior High, Senior High, Adult Division & Knights of Columbus Division. There are different Topics for each division. The competition is opened to male and female students. Application forms are available at the Parish Office. Deadline: December 10th, 2023.

Prayer of the week

Father God, we thank you for blessing us with another week. We thank you for the ability to start over again in this new week. This gift of grace is a true reflection of your forgiveness and mercy. I remember to be thankful that I did not have to carry the sins of my life last week over into this week. Help me begin with a clean slate so that I might continue to be a testimony of your goodness here on earth. Even though it seems like there is no good in the world, we know that You are making all things new in Christ Jesus and that Your light and Your love are breaking through the darkness.
Amen.

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen. Paul Barnett Sr., Rosemary Black, Guy-Phillipe Berlin, Donnalee Colebrooke, Sonia Darville, Patricia Deane, Carol & Sylvia Edgecombe, Michael Farrington, Patricia Higgs, Hartman Johnson, Monique Johnson, Daphne Kerr, Edward Kerr, Patricia Knowles, Paula Lundy, Ida Major, Dellareese McPhee, Drucilla Moss, Vanessa Moss, Agatha Pratt, Martha Roberts, Kyandre Sands, Jayde Smith, Mable Smith, Lucinda Symonette, John Tucker, Anastina Wilson and Jacinta White, the imprisoned, the homebound, the hospitalized and persons in the Geriatrics Hospital. ## Reflecting on the Word Humility Enthroned

The very concept of Christ the King might seem rather triumphalistic in an age of expanding democratization of society. But look carefully at this king as portrayed in today’s parable: he was hungry and thirsty and naked and ill and in prison. Who are his loyal subjects? They are those who give food to the hungry and drink to the thirsty, who welcome strangers and clothe the naked, who comfort the ill and visit prisoners. What a king and what a kingdom! The goal of this king is not to oppress his subjects with his power but rather to “break the power of evil”: in this kingdom the evils of economic, medical, and criminal injustice are confronted and overcome by subjects who not only respect the “King of creation” but also “glory in his justice and live in his love.” The kingdom that we celebrate today is “a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace.” Those who respect truth and life, who live in holiness and grace, and who work to bring justice, love and peace, will “inherit the kingdom prepared for them from the creation of the world.” After we have obeyed the Lord, and in his Spirit nurtured on earth the values of human dignity, brotherhood and freedom, and indeed all the good fruits of our nature and enterprise, we will find them again, but freed of stain, burnished and transfigured, when Christ hands over to the father: “a kingdom eternal and universal, a kingdom of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice, love, and peace.” On this earth that Kingdom is already present in mystery. When the Lord returns it will be brought into full flower.
