The Role of Discipleship in Spreading the Gospel

Discipleship fosters relationships – As a disciple, you are called to build relationships with other believers and non-believers. Through these relationships, you can share the gospel and demonstrate how a life lived with Christ is transformative.

Discipleship encourages growth – As you grow in your own faith through discipleship, you are better equipped to share the gospel with others. When you are living proof of the power of Christ, people are more likely to listen to your testimony and consider your message.

Discipleship creates a ripple effect – When you disciple someone and they, in turn disciple others, the impact expands exponentially. This is the true definition of making “fishers of men.”

Prayer for the Week

Our Father, As we stand before You today, we humbly seek Your divine guidance and wisdom for the week ahead. You are the source of all knowledge and understanding, and we acknowledge that without You, we are lost. Grant us clarity of mind and discernment as we navigate the challenges and decisions that lie before us. Illuminate our path with Your light, so that we may walk in Your truth and make choices that align with Your will. Fill our hearts with Your wisdom, that we may see beyond the surface and perceive the deeper meaning in every situation. Help us to make choices that honor You and bring glory to Your name. In moments of uncertainty, may Your voice be our compass, leading us in the right direction. May Your Holy Spirit guide our steps, so that we may walk in the path of righteousness. In Your precious name, we pray. Amen.

To our members, We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers!

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen.

Old palm branches from last Palm Sunday can be brought into the office in preparation of Ash Wednesday which is on Wednesday 5th March.

Reflecting on the Word To Raise the World

The First Reading is about the call of Isaiah: “Whom shall I send?” The next two readings are about the apostles, those who were sent by Jesus to carry his message and carry on his work. Who are Jesus’ apostles in our world? Whom will God send today? When God wants to send a message of love to the outcasts of this world who will say “Here I am; send me!” When God wants someone to speak out in the halls of government on behalf of the voiceless who will say “Here I am; send me!” When all the world marches out to war and God needs someone to march in the opposite direction, a messenger of peace who will say “Here I am; send me!” As the world suffers from the ill effects of the injustice it has caused, and the Church offers a way out through its social teaching, where are the Catholics who will bring that message to the world? Who will say “Here I am; send me!” The Christian calling has to do with what is known in Catholic social thought as the common good. “Watch over your family and keep us safe in your care.” Christians are called to work for the good of the human family. It is an urgent task, requiring people who have a sense of God’s justice and are committed to peacemaking. Whom will God send? We are all struggling to raise the world to a condition of greater justice, more stable peace, more sincere cooperation. We invite all of you and encourage you, from the humblest who are the underpinning of nations to heads of state responsible for each nation—we encourage you to build up an efficacious and responsible structure for a new order, one more just and honest. ~Pope John Paul I, Message of August 27, 1978. Gerald Darring~
