

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, protect me.
Blood of Christ, fill me.
Water from Christ's side, purify me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me;
Never permit me to leave thee.
From the evil one defend me.
In my last hour, call me.
And bid me come to thee,
And with your saints and angels praise thee,
Throughout eternity.
Amen.

The Jubilee Prayer

*Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.*

*May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil
vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.*

*May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.*

Prayer for the Week

Source of All Blessings, I stand before you with a heart eager to receive your favor. As I embark on this new week, I ask for your divine blessings to saturate every moment. May your hand of favor rest upon my endeavors, causing them to prosper. Let success and positivity be my companions, and let every challenge I encounter be an opportunity for growth. With you by my side, I am confident that this week will be marked by divine orchestration and abundant blessings. In Jesus name,
Amen.

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen.

Reflecting on the Word

Abandonment and Salvation

Jesus came triumphantly into Jerusalem, but he knew what faced him. The death would be terrible, and the suffering that would accompany it would be searing. Worst of all would be the pain of abandonment. Jesus would die abandoned by everyone. His friends and disciples would run away and leave him alone. From among his very best friends, one would turn him over to the authorities and another would deny knowing him. Jesus’ experience of abandonment even seemed to extend to his Father: “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?” In dying his lonely death on the cross, Jesus brought salvation to all those who are abandoned by others: the poor, the homeless, the unemployed, the lonely elderly, those suffering from communicable diseases, the hungry, political prisoners, prostitutes, those on death row. Jesus died and rose that they might be liberated from their abandonment. “Your attitude must be Christ’s,” we are told by St. Paul. We must empty ourselves and take the form of slaves on behalf of those who are abandoned by the world. The ultimate injustice is for a person or group to be treated actively or abandoned passively as if they were nonmembers of the human race. To treat people this way is effectively to say that they simply do not count as human beings. U.S. Bishops, Economic Justice for All, 1986: 77 Gerald Darring.
