Remembering 9/11

Who among us does not remember exactly where we were upon hearing of the horrifying terrorist attacks on 9/11? Tomorrow marks the 22 nd anniversary where nearly 3000 people died at the site of the World Trade Center, Pentagon and on United Flight 93. Especially tomorrow, we remember all those affected that day. For the loved ones of those killed, not a day goes by that they do not mourn, for their lives were changed forever. We pray in deep gratitude for all those who reached out to save, to help, to rebuild, and to commemorate.

We continue to pray to our loving God for our world... for safety... for an end to such terrorism... for peace.

Kindness Poured Out

For the people of Maui, and those around our country affected by fires, torrential rains and floods, and violent deaths...

In the face of such tragedies, stories abound of people who have reached out in love, financial assistance, with food, clothing, shelter, compassion and prayer.

Today, we at Queen of Apostles have the opportunity to make our prayerful financial donations (checks and cash – whether large or small) to those in Maui. We join all our diocesan churches in collecting donations.

Jesus said, “You are my disciples. The world will know you by your love for one another. I will give you courage and strength. I will never leave you. Trust in me.”

Loving, Compassionate God,

Stir our hearts to follow you, to trust in your graces as we show your face and light to those to whom you send us.

Help us to recognize the dignity of every person – and see them as our brothers and sisters.

Give us grateful, compassionate hearts. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

SPIRITUALITY SERIES:

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY & GENDER IDENTITY

SEPT. 19TH-21ST

*What if your beautiful young daughter
came up to you one evening and said,
"Mom and Dad, I'm really a boy"*

*How would you respond?
Are there even any answers?*

A new juggernaut threatens to crush many young lives in its path. It is called transgenderism. But there is hope and there are answers. They have come from the most profound legacy left by the greatest saint in the past two millennia: John Paul II. That legacy is his theology of the body. Saint John Paul II's teachings are much more than a mere response to the sexual revolution, which also swept away many lives after it began raging in the 1960s.

Theology of the body goes deep. It provides a response to the most fundamental questions we can ask as human beings: "What does it mean for me to be a man or to be a woman? Who am I as a human person, created male or female in God's image?"

Based on theology of the body, philosophy, and psychology, this seminar will seek to illuminate these most vital of questions that young people are asking themselves today.

IN-PERSON TUESDAY MORNINGS (9 SESSIONS, 10 AM TO NOON)

TUESDAY, SEP 12, 19, 26;
OCTOBER 17, 24, 31;
NOVEMBER 14, 28; DECEMBER 5

With Sr. Ingrid Clemmensen, O.P.

Are you a fan of The Chosen? Check out this nine week series presented by Sr. Ingrid Clemmensen O.P. at El Retiro Retreat Center in Los Altos.

Unlike other filmed versions about Jesus' life, The Chosen uses "backstories" to help us place the story in context. Isn't this what Ignatius of Loyola does in inviting us to use our own imaginations in filling in the details of a Gospel scene, to better "see" Jesus? Each session will include the viewing of an episode, discussion and prayer.

If you have questions please email:
