Today is the feast day of Saint Patrick

*H*e is the Patron Saint of Ireland. Saint Patrick was fervent in his faith. He is credited with bringing Christianity to multitudes of the Irish people during the 5th century.

A legend of the green shamrock says that Saint Patrick used it to explain the concept of ONE GOD with three persons in God: the FATHER, the SON and the HOLY SPIRIT. So wear your shamrocks today as a sign of your own faith in the Trinity.

Meet Holly. Think of the word THIRST. Meet Vivian and her husband, Ivan. Think of the word DESIRE.

They are eagerly seeking to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

Holly, Vivian and Ivan attend Mass each week with their young daughter and son. They experience the welcome of our community, listen to the Lenten scripture readings, Gospel and the priest's homily. Then they are dismissed by our priest with the promise of our community's prayers.

Holly, Vivian and Ivan go to the Parish Office with me, Kathy Fanger, to learn more about the Catholic faith. They share what touched them in the readings. They share how God spoke to them today and in the past week. They learn and ask questions about what our Catholic faith teaches.

Go back to the words THIRST and DESIRE. Kathy is witnessing such genuine THIRST and DESIRE by them to become Catholic. On their own time they are delving into reading the Bible, into having their eyes open to the beauty of God's creation. Holly, Vivian and Ivan already feel 'sent' from our parish to reach out in kindness to those they meet at work and in the stores.

In September, they will add a weekly 2 hour evening classes led by Kristie Manning, Faith Formation Director, where they will learn in greater depth the teachings of the Catholic Church. They are eager for this class to begin. Let us pray for Holly, Vivian and Ivan as they journey and are transformed to living as Jesus' very own. May you and I, as we prepare to walk with Jesus during Holy Week experience the genuine THIRST and DESIRE for Jesus' love, mercy and forgiveness. May our gratitude cause us to be sent to reach out to others whom God puts in our path. ♦

My soul is restless until it rests in you

FAITH FORMATION

Our middle and high school students hosted our annual First Holy Communion mini retreat last weekend.

We had about 20 students and their parents spend the morning together, singing, praying, attending Mass together and showing off their creative talents!

Thank you so much to the families that participated, and to the team for doing such an awesome job with the kids. Q of A is blessed to have you!
