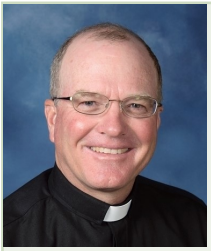
May 8, 2022 - Fourth Sunday of Easter

Happy Mother's Day!



Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from your new Pastor. I am very happy to be in my new home here at Chewelah and serving the four parishes of South Stevens County. I am slowly finding my way around and getting things set up in both the Rectory and Office. Everyone has been very helpful and nice. A special thanks to all those who helped clean up the rectory for my arrival. I was delighted to meet so many parishioners last weekend. I look forward to meeting everyone. It is going to take me awhile to get know people's names and faces.

This Sunday is Mother's Day. Such a lovely day to remember and honor our mothers both living and dead. Mothers are truly a gift from God that he has given us the gift of woman and motherhood. Every woman has the feminine genius, as St. John Paul II described, of being mother, a nurturer and caretaker of human life. All women are spiritual mothers in the sense that they affirm human life and bring others to a greater realization of their dignity as a child of God are called to eternal life in Christ. A spiritual mother prepares her children to be citizens of heaven as we journey in this world.

Of course, the greatest Mother and Spiritual mother is Our Lady, the mother of Our Lord. She not only gave birth to the Son of God and raised him in this world, she is, in a singular way, the mother of us all. Like all mothers she wants what is best for us, and what is best for us is that we grow in holiness, our relationship with her Son Jesus.

Let us this Mother's Day, honor our mothers both living and dead, and not forget our spiritual mother in heaven, Mary, the mother of God. She loves us more than our earthly mothers. Perhaps a way to honor our mothers and Mary, our mother in heaven, this Mother's Day is to pray a Rosary for our mothers. Asking Our Lady to bless our mothers and that we become her worthy children.
